RUSSIANS AGREE TO A TRUCE

British Canal Traffic Moves On Unmolested

BERLIN— (AP) — A truce was arranged today in Berlin's "Battle of the Barges."

Two Russian officers who had attempted to halt traffic in the British sector canal locks yesterday and Wednesday returned today and announced they had orders "not to cause any trouble" and not to interfere with British traffic in the canals.

British officers on the scene said they understood the dispute was being referred to "higher authority" for settlement.

British Stand Guard.

Armed British military police still stood guard on the locks, and barge traffic continued unmolested.

Five Russians carrying sidearms, who had announced their intention to remain at the canal locks to stop barges lacking Soviet registry, pulled out during the night, leaving the British in sole command until the two Soviet officers showed up this morning.

—Espionage Trial—

Report Of FBI Kept From Girl

Miss Coplon Tried 3 Times To See Secret Finding, Court Told

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Judith Coplon tried three times to see a "top secret" FBI report on Russian agents in this country, a government witness testified today.

The witness, William E. Foley, also testified that the espionage department employe was "very much disturbed" when she was told she no longer was to review FBI reports on internal security.

These reports covered such things as spying in this country, and counter-espionage activities.

Foley is chief of the foreign agents registration and internal security sections of the justice department. As such, he was Miss Coplon's boss before her arrest with Valentine A. Gubitchev, 32, suspended Russian employer of the United Nations, in New York, March 4.

'Planted' Note.

The government offered for evidence, then temporarily withdrew, a memorandum described as half true and half false. The government says the paper was "planted" for Miss Coplon.

Raymond P. Whearty, a government prosecutor, said in his opening statement yesterday that the memorandum was shown Miss Coplon on the morning of March 4. Whearty said handwritten notes from the memorandum were found in her purse when she was arrested that night.

Foley testified that he was discussing with Miss Coplon early in January "reports on certain Russian agents in the United States," and remarked that he had received another such report. He said seh asked permission on three occasions to see it.

Robert R. Granville, the FBI agent who arrested Miss Coplon and Gubitchev said in a sworn statement filed earlier in the trial that the defendant's purse yielded a statement saying she had been unable to get "the top secret FBI report on the Soviet and communist intelligence activities."

Gunmen Get $15,000 From Boston Hotel

. . . BELIEVED BANK ROBBERS

BOSTON—(AP)—Three masked men forced four girl employes of the Copley Square hotel to lie on the floor today and then escaped with $15,000 in payroll money, hotel officials said.

Officials said the money was in a safe in the second floor bookkeeper's office. It had just been delivered by armored truck.

Police said the descriptions of the men tallied with those of a trio who earlier held up the Codman Square branch of the Dorchester Savings bank and escaped with an estimated $5,000.

Adjourment By May 14 Is Forecast

By Speaker Lee: Advance County School Levy Bill

Speaker Earl Lee, Fremont, in calling attention to the progress made on bills in the legislature during the week said Friday that if progress continues at the same rate next week adjournment can be reached by May 14.

It was announced that the miscellaneous appropriation bill would be printed and ready for initial study Monday. The budget bills will also be ready Monday but Chairman John Callan requested that they be held at least until Wednesday so that the committee could consider any further recommended changes.

Relief Bill Advanced.

On general file the legislature advanced LB 534 to provide for changes in administration of the Soldiers and Sailors home at Grand Island. Also advanced was LB 536 providing that counties must first levy one-half mill for meeting their 25 per cent share of the over ceiling medical relief.

Re-introduced to meet objections of the governor, LB 537, providing for certain salary deductions without joint signatures of the worker and spouse was advanced.

Rules were suspended and LB 273 and 461 scheduled for final reading on Monday were passed as were LB 307 and 387 on the Friday schedule.

LB 307 provides for the refunding of overpayment of estate taxes and LB 461 increases the compensation of county board members in certain counties. LB 387 permits counties to have public health departments and LB 273 provides for creation of public power districts.

Advanced to final reading from select file was LB 388 providing for a blanket county school levy.

State Y.W. Board Members Outline Plans

. . . Meeting Here

Board members of the Nebraska District Y.W.C.A. opened a two-day meeting Friday afternoon with reports reviewing work of the past six months, Donna Adcock, director, announced.

The group will outline plans for the coming year, arrange for vacations at Camp Merrill near Fullerton for Y-teen girls and review the budget as drawn up Thursday by the finance committee.

The conference will continue until Saturday afternoon.

HAROLD KRAMER

Harold Kramer Dies; Active Power Worker

Stricken While On Eastern Trip

DURHAM, N. C.—(AP)—Harold Kramer, 56, general manager of the Loup River Public Power district in Nebraska, died of a heart attack here early Friday.

Kramer arrived in Durham about 5 p.m. (CST) Thursday from Washington, where he had conferred on public power business. His home was in Columbus, Neb.

Taken To Hospital.

Officials of the Malbourne hotel, where Kramer had registered, said the Nebraskan telephoned the desk clerk from his room a few minutes after midnight and complained of feeling ill.

An ambulance was called and Kramer was taken to a hospital.

Coroner Rohman Harton said Kramer was dead when he reached the hospital and that death was caused by a heart ailment.

Kramer, widely known in public power circles, organized the American Public Power association in Washington.

Board Chairman.

He was chairman of the board of managers of the Nebraska public power system.

Survivors include his widow, a daughter, Kathryn, 20, and a son, Frederick, 24.

Kramer suffered a heart attack in 1946 under similar conditions. En route home from Washington, he was stricken and taken to a New York City hospital.

Kramer had served as general manager of the Loup district since its formation in 1932.

In 1941 he went to Washington where he organized the American Public Power association and served as its executive secretary

Red Emissary Asks Jessup To Visit Him

. . . Russia's Written Reply May Be Ready

NEW YORK — (AP) — Representatives of the United States and Russia will meet here at 4 p. m. (2 p. m. CST) today on the Berlin blockade question.

The meeting will be in the Soviet headquarters on upper Park avenue between Philip C. Jessup, U. S. ambassador-at-large, and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik.

They met there last on Wednesday.

Today's meeting was requested by Malik. This may mean the Soviet representative has received a written reply from Moscow to a request which Jessup made Wednesday, for a formal declaration of Russia's position on lifting the blockade. However, A. U. S. spokesman said he had no knowledge whether Malik had received a reply.

FULL AGREEMENT SEEMS FAR AWAY

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Diplomatic authorities said today that great difficulties lie in the way of full agreement between Russia and the western powers on the unification and joint control of all Germany.

They took this view despite hope for an early end to the Russian blockade of Berlin.

Official statements, including Secretary Acheson's speech in New York last night, are making it increasingly clear that without basic policy changes by Russia, the east-west split in Germany cannot be closed. So far there is no evidence that such policy changes are in prospect.

The talks held to date by American Ambassador Philip Jessup and Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Jakob Malik are reported to have dealt only with the problem

Frisch For Durocher

BOSTON —(AP)— Leo Durocher, suspended manager of the New York Giants, said today Coach Frankie Frisch would be acting manager of the club starting with their game tonight with the Boston Braves.

Durocher held a press conference shortly after his arrival here by train. He said President Stoneham had authorized him to appoint an acting manager.

Frisch, a former manager at Pittsburgh, travelled with the Giants last year as a radio broadcaster.

Today's Chuckle

A shipwrecked mariner had taken refuge on a desert island in 1945 shortly after peace was declared. One day recently he was overjoyed to see a ship drop anchor in the harbor. A small boat came ashore, and an officer handed the sailor a bunch of newspapers.

"The captain suggests," he told the sailor, "that you read what's going on in the world, and then let us know whether you still want to be rescued."

Crete Firemen Free Trucker From Wreckage

Lloyd Pearson, 25, Lincoln, Seriously Hurt In Accident

A 25-year-old Lincoln man, Lloyd Pearson, 4136 St. Paul, was in "serious but not critical" condition Friday afternoon after the truck he was driving plunged 60 feet off a bridge near Crete, Neb.

He was pinned in the cab for over an hour before being freed and rushed to Veterans hospital here.

Found By Farmer.

Officials said he was driving a truck of Anderson Hardware Co., Lincoln, loaded with propane gas, which hurtled off a bridge three and a half miles south of Crete on Highway 82 about 11:30 p. m. Thursday.

A farmer, hearing the noise, got out of bed to investigate, and went to Crete for help. Sheriff John Tesar, Wilber, radioed the Nebraska Safety Patrol for help. The Crete volunteer fire department's first aid division managed to free Pearson from the wreckage and he was rushed to Lincoln by ambulance.

Attendants said he was suffering from a broken leg, lacerations, and loss of blood.

House Set For Big Test On Wood Bill

. . . Truman Patronage Statement May 'Lose Votes'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The house refused emphatically today simply to repeal the Taft-Hartley law and go back to the original Wagner labor relations act.

The proposal was made by Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY), but was voted down.

The house got around to its first votes after four days of debate on a new labor law.

Still ahead was the big test—whether a substitute offered by Rep. Wood (D-Ga) would be taken instead of the administration's bill.

The roll call count against the Marcantonio proposal was 275 to 37.

Says Truman "Lost Votes."

A house leader said privately President Truman "lost votes" for the administration labor bill by tying it in with political patronage in a news conference statement.

But the democratic chieftain said he still expected the administration to win the labor law showdown due in the house today.

The president indicated to newsmen yesterday hat only lawmakers who support the democratic platform—including repeal of the Taft-Hartley law — can hope to have their choices named to federal offices in their districts.

he southerners at whom the comment was primarily aimed were furious. And democratic leaders, who have been busy for weeks trying to line up votes for their Taft-Hartley repeal measure, acknowledged tha Mr. Truman's statement hurt. One of them, asking not to be identified, said:

See Wood Bill Defeat.

"He lost us some votes. We have had to go around and do over again some of the work we thought we had settled two days ago."

But this administration man and others stuck to their prediction that the substitute bill introduced by Rep. Wood (D-Ga) would be defeated.

Some democratic leaders expected a quick vote on this measure, which has the backing of republicans. But others talked of calling a Saturday session. Otherwise the final vote on the administration bill might not come before next Tuesday or Wednesday.

The Wood bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law in name, but would keep almost all of its provisions and even large chunks of its exact language.

The administration bill is sponsored in the house by labor committee Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich). It would replace the present law with a slightly altered version of the new deal Wagner act.

Introduction Comptroller Bill O.K'd

By 25 To 5 Vote: Would Provide A Budget Watch-dog

The state legislature Friday by a vote of 25 to 5 approved the introduction by the budget committee of LB 542, which will create the office of state comptroller.

The legislature adjourned at noon Friday until 10 a. m. Monday. Most of the senators planned to spend the week end at their homes.

The comptroller, according to the bill, will be appointed by the governor for a term of six years at an annual salary of $8,500. Included in his duties would be the examination of departmental budgets, to check budget requests, check and approve purchase by state departments and keep a control account for each spending agency.

It would also be his duty to recommend to the governor and the legislature changes in the state government set-up and to be an ex-officio member of the legislative budget committee.

Introducers of the measure said the bill would have the effect of making the comptroller primarily responsible to the legislature, rather than to the governor. This, they feel, would be of material benefit in controlling and regulating expenditure of tax funds.

Budget a Problem.

Sen. Louis Holmes, Grand Island, speaking in favor of the bill said the governor's budget is worked up with the aid of the state tax commissioner, while the legislative budget committee, in the short time they have, must either accept the tax commissioner's figures or attempt to examine department operation itself.

However, Sen. William Metzger, Cedar Creek, maintained that according to the constitution, the comptroller will still be responsible to the governor and only indirectly responsible to the legislature.

He reminded the members that many state departments, such as the University of Nebraska and William (Bill) Ottens, 70, Lincoln, Burlington engineer, made his last run Friday. He is retiring.

"I don't mind quitting work so much," he said. "But I sure hate to leave all my friends on the railroad."

Ottens said he and his wife planned to make a trip to Texas and "just generally enjoy life."

An engineer since 1905, Ottens went to work as a fireman for the railroad in 1899. The last several years Ottens has had the Lincoln to Creston Ia., run.

Many Hurt In Riot Of Berlin Reds

Communist Youths And Group Of Antis Clash

BERLIN—(AP) — Several hundred communist and anti-communist German youths clashed in bloody street fighting this morning.

A number of reds were hospitalized after the battle, which was broken up by police. The fighting took place in the American sector, near the Soviet sector border.

The communists claimed their opponents tried to break up their pre-May day meeting in the American-occupied borough of Tempelhof. The communist press charged American military police inspired the disorders.

American authorities said no allied personnel was involved.

American public safety officers said the communist free German youth organization had been given permission to hold a meeting. They said that scores of those attending the meeting came from the Russian sector and this "invasion" created resentment among the anti-communists.

The ruckus stirred fears of further clashes Sunday when communist and anti-communist trade union federations plan to stage rival May day celebrations.

Farmers' Fair Activities To Start Tonight

Parade, Rodeo Slated Saturday

Festivities of the second annual postwar Farmers' Fair at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture will open officially Friday evening with an informal dance for students at the college activities building.

Saturday will feature a rodeo, open house displays and a parade through Lincoln's streets.

Highlight of the Friday evening festivities will be the presentation of the goddess of agriculture, a student elected by popular vote of the ag college students. A popular vote also names the goddess' attendants. "A "whisker king" also will be chosen during the evening. His selection will be on the basis of chin growth since the opening of the beard contest March 23.

Open House Scheduled.

The Farmers' Fair parade with the theme, "Progress of Agriculture," will start through downtown Lincoln at 10 a. m. Saturday. The parade will begin at the university coliseum, proceed from Twelfth street to R; south to O street; east to Sixteenth; north to Vine; east to Thirty-third; north to Holdrege and arrive at the ag campus. Floats will be entered by all clubs and organizations on the ag campus. College department will hold open house from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturday. A women's program, also is scheduled at the home economics department.

The rodeo is slated to begin at 1:15 p. m., an all-student affair. Entries include calf roping—rank Bruning, Bruning; James Menohan, Hyannis; James Curtis, Sagoacke Colo.; Bruice Haskell, Stapleton; Vaughn Johnson, Denver, and Merle Stalder, Salem, Neb.

Bull riding—Jack Wilson, Red Cloud; Bob Scherer, Omaha; Rodger Egan, Ashby; Kirkwood Gillespie, Arlington; Rex Coffman, Stuart; and Charles Benner, Mullen.

Bronc riding—Al Clawson, Curtis; Harold German, Cozad; Willard Rule, Friend; Leland Keister, Holstein; Richard Counce, Hayes Center.

Bareback riding—Conrad King, Omaha; Mark Dittman and Robroy Farnham, both of Lincoln; Lavern Popken, West Point; Virge Stebbins, Gothenburg; and Ernest Gotschall, Atkinson.

Wild cow milking contest—Frank Bruning, Kirkwood Gillespie, James Monahan, Don Bever, James Curtis, Ernest Gotschall, Bruce Haskell, Frank Kent, Vaughn Johnson, Conrad King and Merle Stalder.

Beginning at 5:30 p. m. there will be a barbecue followed by a square dance to conclude the day's festivities. The square dance at the college activities building is open to the public.

PTA State Officers Hit Comic Books

GRAND ISLAND, Neb.—(AP)—Officers of the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers came out against comic books today.

"Only when public opinion has been alerted will comics dealing with crime and lust be taken off the news stands," Mrs. R. N. Gould, Omaha, state president, said. "Public opinion can alert parents to the type of comics children are reading."

Mrs. Leonard Miller, Omaha, first vice president, reported that "dealers in comic books over the state are generally co-operating willingly in the screening of the books. The undesirable ones are being taken off shelves when parents let it be known that they want them off."

Screening of comic books is now being done in York, Scottsbluff and Omaha.

Committee Approves Fund Hike

Senate Group Boosts House's Figure For Treasury, Post Office

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A $40,250,600 jump in funds voted by the house for the treasury and post office departments was recommended by the senate appropriations committee today.

The committee approved a bill carrying $3,112,968,503 for the two departments for the year starting July 1. In addition to being more than the house approved, the figure tops the appropriation for this year by $459,748,823. However, it is $65,298,246 under the budget estimates submitted by President Truman.

The increases voted today include $12,268,000 for 6,019 more field jobs to let the bureau of internal revenue "more effectively ferret out tax evaders."

Blockade Negotiations

of lifting the blockade and arranging a meeting of the council of foreign ministers—but not with what the foreign ministers might accomplish.

The fact is that Washington officials regard the possible meeting as a testing ground of the ability of Russia and the American-British-French bloc to reach any constructive agreement. Possible abolition of the blockade is anticipated here as a western victory in a single battle of a continuing cold war.

Insofar as the opportunity for Russia and the western powers to meet is concerned, the lifting of the blockade would restore the situation to about what it was a year ago before the Soviets sought to isolate Berlin.

Acheson Blames Moscow.

At that time the western powers served notice they would not negotiate so long as the Russians held a pistol to their heads; now the Russians may be ready to lay the pistol down.

Meanwhile a new situation has been created within the western bloc and Acheson in his speech to the American Newspaper Publishers association in New York last night blamed this squarely on Russia.

He said the Russians had sought economic and political control of Germany in the early postwar period and had refused to make reasonable agreements for the future of a democratic German state, so the western powers went ahead with their own plans.

U. S. Wants a Solution.

As a result they have spelled out in detail what kind of Germany they want to rebuild. In any future council of foreign ministers session, therefore, it will be for the Russians to decide whether they will unify Germany along the lines laid down by the western powers or whether they would prefer that Germany remain split indefinitely.

Acheson emphasized that the United States is prepared to deal with either alternative and if no agreement can be reached with the Russians this country "will continue to lend vigorous support to the development of the western German program."

At the same time he expressed the intention of the United States to do what it can to reach a satisfactory solution. Presumably he is prepared to make relatively minor modifications in the western German plans if the Russians seem sincerely anxious to adapt those arrangements to the whole of Germany.

The New York Times said today an authoritative source has disclosed that the United States and Britain will propose merger of the Soviet zone in Germany with the proposed west German republic. The story datelined Lake Success, N. Y., headquarters of the United Nations, said the proposal is to be advanced at the proposed Big Four meeting. It said France has not agreed to it.

Weather Ahead

OMAHA—(AP)—The five day extended forecast for Nebraska: temperatures will average near the seasonal normal through Wednesday; normal maximum 67 west, 70 east; normal minimum 40 west, 44 east; warmer Saturday, becoming cooler Sunday; warmer Tuesday and cooler Wednesday; rainfall during the period will range less than ¼ inch and showers and scattered thunder storms western portion of Nebraska Saturday and over the rest of the state Sunday, with another area of thunder showers moving across the state about Wednesday.

Pastors With Strong Faith Are Big Need

. . . Says Denver Pastor

Although revival in churches is a controversial issue today, what is needed are pastors with strong faith, Rev. Paul E. Palmquist, Denver, told members of the Midwest conference of Evangelical churches Thursday night.

Rev. Palmquist was guest speaker at the opening of the annual meeting which is being held at the First Evangelical Covenant church at Twentieth and G. He was introduced to the delegates from Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado by Rev. J. Alfred Johnson, host pastor.

Conference chairman Rev. Bethel N. Bengston, Wausa, expressed the conference's gratitude for the past church's hospitality.

Business meetings were scheduled for the Friday morning and afternoon sessions. Rev. Gottfred Anderson, Omaha, will lead a home missionary services at 7:45 p. m. and general manager there until the middle of 1942.

Educated At Chicago U.

Kramer was born in Columbus Nov. 15, 1892. He graduated from the University of Chicago in 1913 and was in the coal, oil and gravel business before entering the public power field.

Except for about four years around the time of the World war I, Mr. Kramer h.. spent his entire life in Columbus. He was in the stationery business in Seattle, Wash., later homesteaded in Wyoming but returned to Nebraska in 1921.

He started out his World war I service at the U. S. army balloon school at Fort Omaha. He subsequently attained the rank of lieutenant.

He was a past exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, an active Mason, Scottish Rite, Shrine and member also of the Eagles Lodge and Knights of Pythias.

Officials Mourn Death.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. — (AP) —The death of Harold Kramer of Columbus, widely-known Nebraska public power official, "deprives the state of Nebraska of one of its fine, forward-looking and progressive citizens," Gerald Gentleman said today. Gentleman is manager of the Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation district.

"His contribution to the state's power and irrigation program was tremendous. His passing is a great personal loss to me. I appreciated his fine friendship and I have always marveled at the great enthusiasm and sustained drive that he brought to each and every undertaking."

HASTINGS, Neb.—(AP)—A. C. Tilley, general manager and chief engineer of the Central Nebraska (Tri-County) Public Power and Irrigation district, commented:

"We are shocked by the sudden death of Harold Kramer, who was a powerful figure in public power field from the very beginning in Nebraska. The loss will be deeply felt by the whole state and I know of literally thousands who are stunned at hearing of his sudden passing. Kramer's intense activity not only in the field of public power but also in civic and private duties undoubtedly hastened his death."

the board of control, have departmental comptrollers and this would only be adding another to the heap.

Another Bureau.

He pointed out that the budget request for the office of the comptroller of the university for the next biennium was $100,000, while the state comptroller, who would be superior to the university official, would be appropriated only $8,500, per year, according to the bill.

"If we pass this bill we are merely creating another bureau," stated Senator Lester Anderson, Aurora. "The $8,500 salary is just a start. The comptroller, to do the job intended in this bill, would be required to hire a large staff, and eventually would become another large bureau."

Speaking in favor of the bill, Sen. Tom Davies, Lincoln, said, "We have here an opportunity to spend a little money and save a lot. The duties of this official could so be set forth that he would be responsible directly to the legislature."

"We definitely must strengthen the budgetary procedure of this state," Sen John Callan, chairman of the budget committee, said. "This is especially necessary in the preparation of the governor's budget. The budget committee must of necessity depend very largely upon the tax commissioner. The budget committee should have an official who would be able to go more thoroughly into the operation of the departments."

The bill was assigned to the committee on government. No date has yet been set for a public hearing.

Dr. Lyman Arizona Pharmacy Dean

DR. R. A. LYMAN

Dr. R. A. Lyman, who retired as dean of the University of Nebraska College of Pharmacy in 1946, has been appointed dean of the college of pharmacy at the University of Arizona.

Dean Lyman went to Arizona university in the summer of 1947 to help organize a school of pharmacy. Under his guidance it has been expanded and developed to a point where it will be accredited as a college next spring.

Dr. Lyman founded the college of pharmacy at Nebraska in 1915 and was its first dean, a post he held until his retirement in May, 1946. He is nationally recognized as a leader in pharmaceutical education. He is 74 years old.

Basin Group Touring Dams In Southwest

. . . Republican Valley

McCOOK, Neb. —(AP)— Members of the Missouri basin interagency committee today were seeing what happens when engineering plans are translated into construction of river projects.

They traveled up the Republican river toward this terminus of the tour for a look at what H. E. Robinson of Indianola, Neb., termed "planning being translated into work in progress." Robinson is reclamation bureau manager of the Kansas-Nebraska district.

The governors and federal officials moved into Nebraska from Concordia, Kas., where they met yesterday.

Inspect Bostwick Project.

They left Concordia at 8 a. m., then visited the Scandia and Courtland projects in Kansas to see work completed in the Bostwick irrigation project under the corps of engineers.

This was the schedule: enter Nebraska near Superior and travel west, viewing the Superior-Courtland diversion dam below Red Cloud, arriving at the Harlan dam at noon.

After viewing the Oxford siphon, part of the Frenchman-Cambridge irrigation district plan, the group was scheduled to reach the Medicine creek dam near Cambridge at 4:15 p. m.

Gasoline Tax Receipts Show 12 Pct. Hike

. . . Over Month Ago

Gasoline tax collections in Nebraska amoutned to $1,355,821 during April, a 12 per cent increase over the $1,208,521 collected the previous month, Clay Wright, chief of the motor fuels division, reported Friday.

The April collections were only .5 per cent above the figure for the same month last year, however, Wright said, and 15 per cent above the April, 1947, collections.

He said the increase over March is due to the seasonal increase in travel, and that the increase will probably continue throughout the rest of the spring and the summer as tourist traffic becomes heavier. Better road conditions in the state, allowing farmers to do more driving are also a factor in the increase, Wright said.

April Cigaret Tax

Receipts $301,485

State cigaret tax collections for the month of April amounted to $301,485, as compared to $320,063 fo rthe same month in 1948, R. H. Creadick, chief of the cigaret tax division, said Friday.

The collections were up $5,960 from the total of $295,525 during March.

"At the present time, there appears to be no material cause contributing toward the decrease in monthly collections," Creadick said.

Cosmo Convention Reports Are Given

Reports on the annual conference of the Nebraska Federation of Cosmopolitan clubs held April 23 and 24 at Holdrege were given at the Friday meeting of the Cosmopolitan club at the Lincoln hotel.

Persons attending the conference who gave reports were Wendell Graham, Bill Oliver and Ken Flory.

Mrs. Graham also reported on the Cosmo-Pals meetings, held in conjunction with the conference.

'Pop' Wicks Retiring As County Agent

On Extension Service Staff Of N.U. 30 Years

W. R. "Pop" Wicks, a member of the agricultural extension service staff of the University of Nebraska for 30 years and presently Douglas county agent, will retire on May 1, it was announced Friday.

He will be succeeded in Douglas county by Arnold Peterson, who has been serving as assistant agent under Wicks in Omaha since 1947.

Mr. Wicks is known as one of the "best loved and highly respected rural educational leaders in Nebraska." He has been identified with many forward-looking agricultural programs in various parts of the state where he served as an extension worker.

Strong 4-H Interest.

Always able to assist local people with diagnosing their farm and home problems, Wicks went to work to help correct them. He maintained a strong interest in 4-H club boys and girls and from them and others he was years ago given the name of "Pop."

Mr. Wicks was closely identified with the development of the poultry and turkey industry in Thayer county, where he served for 17 years. In Douglas county, he has been a leader in the development of a strong dairy program, based upon artificial breeding of dairy cattle.

The National County Agents' association, several years ago, honored him for his long service to agriculture. Mr. Wicks is credited with the training of a large number of the state's present outstanding agricultural extension agents.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, he taught rural schools in that state from 1911 to 1914. He first joined the agricultural extension service staff in Nebraska as county agent in Red Willow county in July, 1918. He served as district agricultural agent in the Imperial area — comprising Perkins, Chase and Hayes counties—for six months and then was agent in Furnas county until 1927.

Known For 'Fun Feed.'

In 1927, Wicks transferred to Thayer county, where he served until 1944. There, he helped develop the poultry and turkey industry, developed a strong 4-H club program and assisted in community-wide organizational development. His "fun feeds" staged in every corner of the county for years were widely known.

In April, 1944, Mr. Wicks was made agricultural agent in Douglas county. There, he handled a great diversity of agricultural problems and helped to cement better relations with the metropolitan and rural areas. He took an active part in the development of the Douglas County Dairy Breeders association.

Arnold Peterson, who succeeds Mr. Wicks, is a native Nebraskan and was born on a farm near Concord. He is 36 years of age and graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1939. In World war II, he served 43½ months in the armed forces. He was an assistant county agent at large in Nebraska before going to Douglas county in April, 1947.

Chapter 5

The end of their first week as partners found Garrett and Felicity parked in a green meadow beside a small brook. The children were playing in the twilight. Garrett sat on the steps with Felicity and totaled the week's proceeds.

"Well, that's the sum total," he told her at last, holding out three rather grubby dollar bills and some small change. "The vast sum of three dollars and eighty-one cents apiece. Neither of us will ever get rich that way, my girl!"

"Oh, but you haven't stopped to think. She thrust the money into the pocket of her soft white shirt and rested the small pad on her knee. "Neither of us had to spend anything for parking this past week. That's seven nights' free parking. Since it cost fifty cents a night for each of us, that amounts to a dollar a night, or seven dollars we've saved this week. Then the gas and oil for both cars—remember? Between us we spent eleven dollars and forty-two cents for gas and oil. Then we fed ourselves out of the produce we traded in for the books and magazines, and that would amount to at least three dollars a day for all of us. What do you mean we won't get rich this way?"

Garrett looked at her with frank respect and a dawning excitement in his eyes. "Then it wasn't such a crazy idea after all," he said eagerly. "We are making a little money—and our expenses. What a swell little partner you are, Fliss!"

"Oh, I'm nothing special," she said hurriedly. "It's just been that—well, I've had to count pennies and squeeze nickels for so long that I guess it comes naturally for me to be a sharp trader."

"It hasn't been too much fun, has it, youngster?" Garrett said unexepectedly. I mean being the supporting parent to an oddly assorted brood—no two of you are in the least alike."

"That's because most of us had different mothers," Felicity reminded him.

"What's your father doing now, Felicity? I've meant to ask, but never got around to it," said Garrett with frank curiosity.

She hesitated a moment, and then her chin went up and there was a hint of hostility in her voice when she said crisply, "Father's resting."

"Resting from what?" he demanded curiously.

"That means that—well, he's not working at all. Theatrical people always say they are 'resting' or 'at liberty.' Father's waiting for just exactly the right part—and then he'll do a 'comeback'."

"I see," said Garrett, and did, quite plainly.

Filicity looked sharply at Garrett as though the dryness of his tone aroused her suspicions. But he met her eyes straightly, and after a moment she said awkwardly, "Father's really a perfectly swell person. Very good-looking and very distinguished and with a great deal of personal charm. Women have always gone quite mad about him. He doesn't look a day over forty and always manages somehow to look very smart—poor old Dad! The last three words came on a different note, breaking with pity, revealing to Garrett far more than she realized of the actual truth behind her brave pretense that everything was perfectly splendid with her father.

Garrett nodded and his eyes were warm with affection and amusement as he said quietly, "D'you know something, Fliss? I think you're a darned smart girl—and a very fine one?"

A sudden terror-stricken wail rang out from the trailer. Instantly Felicity was on her feet and inside the trailer. Garrett following her. She bent over the narrow berth on which Ellen lay and caught the writhing, screaming child close in her arms, giving her a little shake that awoke her.

"Oh, Fliss—Fliss," she whimpered, hiding her face against Felicity's breast, "I thought you'd gone off and left me—and I had to go back to Mrs. Hudgins."

"Don't be silly, darling," Felicity soothed her, holding her close rocking her a little. "You're never going to see Mrs. Hudgins again and I'm never going to leave you—never, do you hear?"

"Yes, Fliss," said Ellen, and tried to smile through her tears.

When Ellen's eyes closed Garrett and Felicity stood once more on the trailer steps in the moonsilvered night and Felicity said quietly, "Do you begin to understand why I 'hung Ellen around my neck' even though she is not really a part of my own family?"

"But this Hudgens—why is she so terrified of Mrs. Hudgins?"

"Her mother put her to board with Mrs. Hudgins when she was two—and Mrs. Hudgins seems to have been quite a character. She seems to have had some rather original ideas about punishment—such as pouring boiling water on children who skated in front of her house—"

"Oh, good Lord—no!" Garrett was shocked.

"It doesn't sound possible, does it?" agreed Felicity. "I haven't dared question Ellen much about what her life there was like. When I first brought her home, any mention of Mrs. Hudgins sent her into hysterics. She's getting better now. I am hoping that Florida will—well, make her sound and healthy and normal."

Garrett studied her for a moment and then he said gently, "Did I say you were a very swell person, Fliss? That goes double now."

Unexpectedly he caught her hand, raised it to his lips and kissed it. And then, without another word, he turned and went off to his own trailer, leaving Felicity to stand breathless, staring after him.

Harold Kramer

Less than two weeks ago we sat in a hotel room in Lincoln for more than two hours with Harold Kramer, whose death occurred suddenly Thursday night. Mr. Kramer was general manager of the Loup River Public Power district. Present also was Gerald Gentleman, who occupies a like post with the Sutherland Public Power district.

Discussion revolved around a proposed refinancing program under which the two Nebraska hydros were considering a plan of obtaining loans through private sources to repay the debt incurred in their construction and to cover the cost of increased generating facilities. The plan involved a higher interest rate in the debt service, a commission for the fiscal finance agency and other expenses. To us it seemed so unwise to increase interest charges, or to transfer the loans to private banking groups.

Mr. Kramer, Mr. Gentleman and other representatives of the public power districts continued on to Washington, completed satisfactory arrangements with the government, and Mr. Kramer called on long distance a few nights ago to announce that the plan for loans through private sources had been dropped.

He had been troubled with a heart ailment for more than a year.

During most of the discussion here two weeks ago he was resting on a bed.

Talk naturally drifted back to the early beginnings of this program of river development the long battle for approval of enabling legislation which provided the basis of creating a vast supply of cheap electricity, of storing water and of expanding irrigation. Mr. Kramer recalled that at the very beginning the program contemplated simply public works developments to take up the slack of unemployment. And from that has grown an orderly, far-sighted, invaluable development, which in providing cheap electricity for Nebraska's farms and cities, in the storage of water and the expansion of irrigation, has strengthened Nebraska and speeded its progress perhaps by a matter of 25 years.

Mr. Kramer had a part in that struggle, and although his death came at the flush peak of men's activities, we know he would have no regrets for the sapping demands made upon his time and energy in connection with all of it.

Highway Measures

Better Nebraska highways moved a long step forward in the Nebraska unicameral Thursday when bills dealing with an increase in gasoline tax, an increase in motor vehicle registration fees, and a third measure setting up a use stamp to reimburse the highway funds for expenditures made last winter in reopening snow-blocked highways moved ahead to a select file without opposition.

Those developments are gratifying.

They suggest that a sensible, sound highway program is taking form. It does not mean that overnight Nebraska will emerge from the mud or that deteriorating state primary roads will be restored in one short summer, but it does mean that the foundations are being laid to do a job of highway building. It has been plain from the earliest start of discussion that if Nebraska intended to do anything about highways, more money had to be raised. These bills provide more adequate revenues for highway construction. They carry out the steps which were recommended for a long-term program, covering 20 years, at the end of which Nebraska can take pride in its roads.

It is a little bit difficult to understand the proposal by Senator Arthur Carmody in connection with the use stamp bill, LB 402. That is an emergency measure, not a part of the long-term program. It is to reimburse the state highway fund for money spent in the battle against blizzards throughout the winter of 1948-49, during which hundreds of thousands of dollars poured out to re-establish communications with the outside world for scores of snow-blocked towns and cities, especially in the central, western and northern parts of the state.

Senator Carmody has the idea that one-half of the money collected from the sale of use stamps —two dollars for passenger cars and five dollars for trucks and buses—be retained by the county in which the fee is collected. Of this one-half share the cities would retain a half, the counties the other half. The amendment, it would appear, defeats the purpose of LB 402, nullifies the results to be obtained under it, reduces by 50 per cent the amount available for matching federal highway funds, which is the real reason LB 402 was introduced. Because of the severe drain of keeping the roads open during the winter, the state lacks revenue at this time to match federal dollars needed for immediate construction. The proposed Carmody amendment contributes nothing to highway development; county boards themselves are not pressing for it. All that it does is to add to confusion.

In the main the action on the highway measures constitutes one of the more gratifying developments of the present legislative session.

Baldwin's Shift

The United States senate will lose one of its ablest members if Senator Baldwin resigns his seat to accept appointment to the Connecticut Supreme court. Ordinarily a man does not quit the United States senate but Senator Baldwin, an active figure in Connecticut politics for 29 years, has had a hankering for the bench for a long time. The realization of a cherished ambition comes to him through appointment by a democratic governor, Chester Bowles, who in turn will appoint Baldwin's successor to the senate. Senator Baldwin is one of the most able republican members, a man who has created a reputation for himself by breaking away from the more conservative elements within his party.

In Good Faith

President Truman contributed to public satisfaction in the reports that Russia is ready to lift the Berlin blockade when the president expressed his belief that the Kremlin's move is in good faith. At the same time the chief executive indicated that negotiations are continuing. The public will recognize that if anything is to come out of the reported Russian readiness to terminate a tense situation that has existed for a year, the practical steps must be initiated by Moscow.

AND, NOW WHAT'S WRONG?

Nebraskans who got up with the sun Thursday must have been glad to be alive. It was a beautiful spring morning. Skies were blue, the sunshine warm, the world throbbed to the fine tones of gentle spring. Unkind words seemed so out of place in such a setting. We took an oath on the Good Book that our day would be filled to the brim with love and kisses. Ah, good resolutions—so honestly made, and so honestly broken. We were scanning the news columns, since all that we know is what we read in the paper.

We came across the reporter's account of the address by Sen. John Callan, chairman of the legislative budget committee before the Knife and Fork club of Lincoln. We give it to you in cold type as it appeared in the news column:

"When I sat in with the governor (Governor Peterson) during his hearing on the university budget, not a member of the board of regents was there. It was the same thing before the budget committee."

Senator Callan also commented on the discrepancy between the amount the governor (Governor Peterson) said the university would receive in fees and what university officials estimated. "If we had a sound budget procedure (at the university), we could go into the requirements and be in the better shape to judge needs."

When Senator Callan sat in with Governor Peterson it was either late December of 1948 or the opening days of January, 1949; it is now near the end of April. It is later, we suggest not unkindly to Senator Callan, later than he thinks to be fault finding because of the absence of the board of regents when Governor Peterson held his budget hearing; in charitable spirit a little bit tardy for him to be raising the question now that the same board of regents failed to show up at the hearing conducted by the appropriations committee. Senator Callan clearly noted the regents' absence at the governor's budget hearing because he mentions it himself. If we had felt as keenly as Senator Callan seems to feel on this subject, we know exactly what we would have done. We know that we would have requested that in addition to the chancellor and the finance secretary, John Selleck, we would have asked the board to be present in notifying the administration of the University of Nebraska that the appropriations committee desired to hear it on the subject of its financial needs.

There is no desire here to criticize Senator Callan, to criticize any member of the appropriations committee, to criticize any member of the legislature. Get that, and get it straight, as straight from the shoulder as it can be delivered. But the people of Nebraska, the people to whom the University of Nebraska belongs, are entitled to the facts, the plain facts, unvarnished and undecorated.

Now what are the facts? This disappointing, uncalled for, unfair, indirect allusion to Chancellor R. G. Gustavson is set forth fully in comment which appeared in The Omaha World-Herald Thursday:

"There is a dispute about the University of Nebraska budget for the next biennium . . . The dispute concerns the amount of money the university can expect to receive from student fees for tuition, etc., in the next two years. The university, in presenting its budget request, estimated such fees at $3,400,000. But the governor, in presenting the university budget to the legislature, estimated the fees at $4,600,000. The legislature's budget committee accepted Governor Peterson's figure. Governor Peterson thus far hasn't been overly frank in telling the people of Nebraska how he arrived at the figure of $4,600,000. University officials on the other hand have expressed such confidence in their estimate THAT THEY HAVE OFFERED TO TURN BACK TO THE STATE TREASURY (the state general fund) ALL THE STUDENT FEES THEY COLLECT IN EXCESS OF $3,400,000.

Is that a fair offer on the part of the University of Nebraska? Does that offer reveal any lack of confidence on the part of the university in the accuracy of its own estimate, an estimate involving $1,200,000 arbitrarily arrived at by the governor's budget director. The offer is to turn back to the people of Nebraska, to the state general fund, everything in excess of $3,400,000. It was made in good faith. It was made by a man whose word is good, whose word is good with the people of Nebraska. It was made, we might add, by a man who has the respect, the confidence and the affection of hundreds of thousands of Nebraskans.

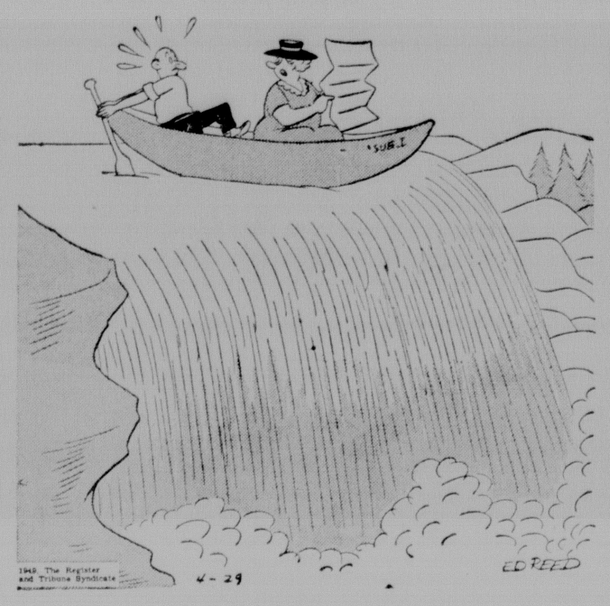
And why is this more-than-a-million-dollar dispute in the estimates of fees important? It is important only because it is used as the basis of slashing the tax funds made available to the university for its support and maintenance. Governor Peterson, and now Senator Callan say the university will get money for operation, which it will not receive. The university has enough faith in its estimate that it proposes all tuition and fees in excess of $3,400,000 be turned back to the state general fund for general operating costs. We think Senator Callan's failure to discuss the real basis of the dispute is most disappointing.

OFF THE RECORD

By ED REED



"That's funny, dear! This bend in the river is not shown on the map!"

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—While it's difficult to get the right men to fill top government jobs, the proposed appointment of Curtis Calder, head of Electric Bond and Share, as secretary of the army is going to cause a lot of eyebrow-lifting among farmers.

In the first place, Electric Bond and Share was one of the power trusters whose abuses led to passage of the holding corporation act; and the records of the federal trade commission regarding its operations make juicy reading.

Second, and more recently, Electric Bond and Share has been one of the most effective and ruthless members of the power-trust gang in fighting the government's program for public power and rural electrification.

Nevertheless, it is now proposed to take the head of this giant corporation, which has bitterly opposed the government, and embrace him in the bosom of the government as policy-maker, among others, for the army engineers—which build the multipurpose dams for the government.

"To put Calder in this job," says the Rural Electric Co-operative, "would be about the same as making Ham Moses, of Arkansas Power and Light, the secretary of the army." Moses is the power executive who once gave nylon stockings to the wives of congressmen he wanted to vote against public power.

On the foreign front, Calder's connections are also important. One of the army's most vital jobs pertains to Germany. That country, from which sprang two great wars, may hold the key to future wars, and the cabinet officers who make decisions regarding Germany must be impartial.

COLUMNIST DREW PEARSON says that Curtis Calder (above), head of Electric Bond and Share is being considered for appointment as secretary of the army. In that role he would be one of the policy makers for the army engineers, which build multiple purpose dams for the government. Electric Bond and Share, Pearson says, has been one of the most effective enemies of the rural electrification program, along with public power.

Mr. Calder, however, is a director of the United States and Foreign Securities Corp., and the United States and International Securities Corp., both organized by Dillon, Read an Co., for the purpose of financing public utilities in Germany before the war.

The Dillon, Read group has always believed in building up Germany and, despite the mistake of having financed what eventually became part of Hitler's war machine, this group has continued to support German cartels. An official report is now before the army department criticizing ex-Undersecretary of the Army William Draper, another Dillon, Read executive, for rebuilding cartels since the war.

James Forrestal, ex-secretary of national defense and former head of Dillon, Read, is also in this group. And it was one of the companies of which Mr. Calder is director — U. S. and Foreign Securities — which caused Forrestal great embarrassment. For a senate committee revealed the fact that he had made a profit of $865,000 by selling his holdings in this corporation in 1929 and had avoided paying income tax on the $865,000 by creation of a family holding corporation in Canada.

Capable as Mr. Calder may be as a business executive, his corporate background is not going to inspire confidence among the two million men who would serve under him in the U. S. army.

On Easter Sunday, the Soviet officer attached to the U. S. air safety center at Tempelhof airdrome, Berlin, watched 13,000 tons of goods landed by U. S. airplanes in a single day — a landing or takeoff every 30 seconds. Before the Berlin blockade, the total flow of goods into Berlin from the western zones by rail, barge and truck—all three put together —was not more than 11,000 tons a day. Shrugging his shoulders at the amazing performance of U. S. air freight carriers, the Russian officer walked out in despair. He said he could no longer follow, much less record, the speed and complexity of the American flight pattern. No wonder Russia is now ready to lift the blockade.

The capital's horse-and-hound set is beginning to take up the Arab. No, it isn't so much interested in Palestine, as in horses. Arabian horses, the original breed that carried Ghengis Khan through Asia, have now come to the U.S.A. And believe it or not, but out of only 5,000 pure-bred Arabians in the world, 4,000 of them are in this country. Though smaller than the Virginia hunter, they are the most intelligent horse living, and because of past habits of desert forage, eat less. Virginians have to look to the middle west for pure Arabs, however —one of the prize stallions, Sarab Al Sahra, being owned by Joe Lebowitz of Midlothian, Ill., who goes in for Arab horses but not the Arab horsemen of Palestine.

Seton Porter, president of National Distillers, one of the most powerful members of the whiskey combine, has been lobbying to block a treasury declaration that whiskey aged in second-hand barrels is just as good as whiskey aged in new barrels. The treasury contends there is no difference between new and secondhand barrels in the aging of whiskey, but Seton Porter, a heavy contributor to the democratic national committee (after the election), rushed in, pounded on treasury desks and demanded that the ruling be reconsidered. Mr Porter stands to lose money if the treasury sticks to its original position favoring second-hand barrels.

A furious battle has broken out between the Farm bureau and the agriculture department. The first salvo was fired by Allan Kline, head of the farm bureau, who protested angrily because he wasn't consulted about Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's new farm program. Defiantly, Kline ordered his state organizations to oppose the program, later made the strange declaration that the program offered the farmers too much money . . . Brannan will now carry his case against Kline direct to the farmers, who are beginning to wonder just who Kline is supposed to represent.

ON ALL BUT FOOD.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: For many moons I have pondered and wondered why not a sales tax on everything but food? We all eat, therefore all would benefit from the exemption, which exemption would, I think, reduce much of the opposition to a sales tax.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Our committee wishes to thank publicly the following Lincoln groups for so generously contributing to the success of Cornhusker Boy's State by sponsoring a youth in the Ninth annual session, June 4-11: Cathedral P.T.A., Junior Chamber of Commerce, Elks, Teachers College High School, 40 et 8, American Legion Post No. 3, Hiram, Rotary, Cosmopolitan, Knife and Fork, Lions, and Kiwanis.

CHUCKLE?

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: As the late J. Sterling Morton passed through the beautiful park he had previously donated to Nebraska City, he passed the old settlers' cabin that had been built with logs supplied by old settlers of Otoe county. There was a sign on it: "Old Setlers Cabin." Mr. Morton asked Superintendent Fitsche why the word "settlers" has been spelled with one "t." "Well," said Mr. Fitsche, "so long as more than half of the old settlers was dead, I thought one "t" would be enough."

NEARER TO HOME.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The proposal by the Russians to lift the Berlin blockade is made for the purpose of defeating the North Atlantic pact, and it is hoped that it will just have that effect. If the senate approves the pact and trouble arises we will be in war with all our resources, and our sons will be slaughtered on the fields of Europe. Secretary Acheson advised the senate yesterday that if the senators voted for ratification naturally they would be duty bound to vote for 1¼ billions to arm western Europe and finally bankrupt our government and our people. It is time that we should think more about our own subjects and our people than so much propaganda about Europe. There is altogether too much of this to keep the people war-minded—it's about all that you hear through press and radio.

TWO DOMINANT RACES.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: There are two dominant races in modern history — the Germanic and the Romanic. The Germanic race tends to personal liberty, sturdy individualism, civil and political liberty. We of the Anglo-Saxon race belong to that great German family and are said to be fair exponents of its peculiarities. The Anglo-Saxon carries self-government with him wherever he goes. He craves popular government and industry; for the effects of a generous civil liberty are not seen a whit more plainly in the good order, in the intelligence and virtue of self-governing people than in their amazing enterprise and the scope and power of their industry. It is proudly said the power to create riches is just as much a part of the Anglo-Saxon virtues as the power to create good order and social safety. Nebraskans have reason to be proud of the German segment of our population. They are industrious, thrifty, religious, law-abiding citizens.

LOSS OF POPULATION.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I want to congratulate you and thank you for that most courageous editorial which ran in last evening's Star relative to the budget proposed by Nebraska and those approved by our neighboring states for higher education. It is my firm conviction that we cannot stand still in our state and expect to be the beneficiary of any profit to industry or agriculture. We will continually lose population, and more important, our good young men and women will not be satisfied to stay in our state and give us the leadership for the future that we so badly need. I do sincerely hope that we will meet this issue, for Nebraska cannot afford to be niggardly in the training of its youth.

WASHINGTON CALLING
by
MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—While it may be true that congress will not act at this session on a health plan, there is every indication that Americans are more and more concerned over the issue. It touches directly so many families.

Marquis Childs

Small segments of opinion are highly organized for and against one plan or another. Most Americans may not be sure what they want, but they do have a growing conviction that they can get something better.

This is the answer, it seems to me, to those who take a do-nothing attitude and hurl bad names at anyone advocating any kind of change. Mere obstructionism is likely in the end to result in a radical and arbitrary solution.

A letter has come to me from a school teacher who lives with his wife on a salary of $2,800—before taxes. For the past five years, he writes, medical expenses have averaged between 25 and 30 per cent of that salary.

This year a siege with cancer which was fortunately operable, brought the total hospital and doctor bills to $2,300. It was a crushing blow which will keep them in debt for a long time to come.

One of their friends is a young doctor. With him the other evening they got in an argument over medical care which grew hotter and hotter. That argument went something like this.

Teacher: I'm not sure that I'm in favor of compulsory health insurance on a national basis—the plan Truman is proposing. But what about people like us? We'll be years paying our medical bills.

Doctor: There's a perfectly good answer. It is voluntary health insurance. The number of people covered by that kind of insurance has grown enormously in recent years.

Teacher: Yes, but it isn't enough. Blue Cross, with the surgical benefits it carries, covered less than 5 per cent of my expenses for this year. And besides until very recently it's been hard for the average citizen outside a big corporation to get voluntary insurance.

Doctor: That's true. The A.M.A. has been far too backward in promoting voluntary health plans. There are plenty of plans that give more coverage for cases like yours.

Teacher: I don't doubt that. But they cost so much that people at my income level can't afford them. You doctors wouldn't know about that. I don't know how many doctors' mansions—and I mean mansions — I've helped to build.

Doctor: There you go I can show you statistics proving that the average doctor's income is . . . But what's the use! You seem to be against the whole profit system.

Teacher: Well, there you go! Can I help it if my salary is so low it won't cover high cost insurance plans? I'm just asking you. I'm asking you what happens to cases like mine.

Doctor: In the first place your case is exceptional. There aren't many families with medical expenses absorbing so high a proportion of total income.

Teacher: How do you know that? I've never seen any adequate statistics on the number of families that get swamped with big medical bills. Yet I keep hearing about families like that all the time. And another thing, I want to know why medical insurance—the kind you talk about, that pays bigger benefits—costs so much.

Doctor: The insurance companies have to make a profit. You seem to be against anybody making any profit. Anything the government tries to run is bound to get mixed up in politics and corruption. That would happen in medicine if this socialized plan went through.

At this point the argument went off the medical track. The teacher was troubled by the doctor's blanket indictment of government as inevitably corrupt. I think many of us are troubled as the corruption of government on state and local levels is revealed and as here in Washington slackness and favoritism too often seem the rule.

But apart from the health insurance plan, there are two steps this session. One is to expand the present program of hospital construction with federal funds. The second, which is even more important, is to initiate with federal money a program for training more doctors and providing more research. If the American people are to have adequate health insurance—whether voluntary or by a federal system—these steps are a necessary preliminary.

SKIPPER PROJECTS "WAR" TRIP

BERLIN—(AP)—Is war just around the corner? A German skipper in the port city of Bremen believes people think so.

He offers to bring passengers to "some safe place somewhere in the world in case of war"—if they pay 2,000 Deutsche marks ($600) fare.

But applicants must hurry to get reservation. His freighter is rather tiny—450 tons, and can accommodate only 25 passengers.

FANCY SALOON NAMES CAUSE SOME TROUBLE

BECONTREE, England—(AP)—The English like to call their pubs (saloons) by fancy names, like "The Marquis of Queensberry," and the practice sometimes leads to confusion.

The Rev. Ralph Stevens, vicar of St. Thomas's, wrote in his parish magazine that when he asked the telephone information girl for the new number of the Bishop of Barking, she replied:

"Oh! Is that a pub?"

10,000 View "Tomorrow's Realities" At University

. . . 37th Annual Engineers Week At N.U.

Today's dream is tomorrow's reality.

As the theme of the 37th annual Engineers' Week open house, that point was brought home to the more than 10,000 persons who attended the exhibit Thursday night on the University of Nebraska campus.

Television, a radio operated train, high-frequency lighting, and FM radio were among the high spots of the annual engineers' display.

But the benefits of scientific progress are not limited to urban areas. The farmer too will realize advances of science in the not-too-distant future.

Farm Equipment Shown.

A centrifugal jet pump to replace the windmill, and portable farm welder, drills, etc., are but a few of the recent inventions designed to make life on the farm more an amenity.

The jet pump, which makes the farmer independent of the weather, can be operated by gas or electric motor. The portable welder or drills can be mounted on a tractor and are ready for use wherever the farmer needs them.

Minature irrigation displays made the wastes due to lack of soil conservation programs seem almost a crime. When lined up viewing soil conservation displays, persons viewing the displays "just could not understand" why such measures have been so long in coming.

Scale Model Of Dam.

Flood control and irrigation exhibits brought closer to home the potentialities of river development if handled properly.

A civil engineers display had a scale model of what the Fort Randall, South Dakota, dam will look like when it is completed. Another display took the Fort Randall dam through every stage of development from 1947 to completion in 1953.

All the latest equipment in farm machinery was on exhibit. A two-cylinder diesel tractor, just off the assembly line, attracted much attention. The self-propelled combined that made history during the war harvest was not slighted by the public either.

Rear-Engine Tractor.

A rear-engine tractor, which carries all equipment in front, was in the spotlight too. This tractor is rather impractical for farming in Nebraska, but it has great prospects for small truck farming. The tractor is now being tested at the agricultural college testing station.

A scale model of a modern farm sewage disposal system which can be constructed by the farmer for very little cost made the farm future brighter.

A home appliance display showing the various rates for different home appliances brought many questions from housewives. According to electrical engineering college figures, based on Consumer rates, a clock will run for a year for 65 cents.

A fan runs eight hours for one and a half cents. An iron is operated for three hours for seven and a half cents. The weekly wash in the washing machine, (four hours), costs less than five cents. A radio costs but one cent for four hours.

X-ray For Machines.

Housewives were also warned, in an ultra-dramatic way, of the dangers of inserting a coin in the fuse box.

A new X-ray machine can detect flaws in gears or a crankshaft as easily as a doctor can detect a cracked rib. A well driller showed the process of digging a well.

A television camera showed individuals the beat of their own heart. A midget auto on a miniature race track could speed over the road at 60 m.p.h. on a thimblefull of gas.

But far out in front as the favorite of the younger set was the bubble gum making machine.

Although the whole process was revealed, from the time old inner tubes were put in one end until the wrapped bubble gum came out on a conveyor belt, the kids loved it. At least no bubble gum piled up for want of consumers.

Manhunt Pressed For Huks

Constabulary Gunning In Communist Retreats

MANILA — (AP) — An angry constabulary today went gunning in the retreats of the communist-led Hukbalahaps for the ambush killers of the Philippines' greatest lady and 11 other persons.

The bodies of Mrs. Aurora Quezon, widow of the first president of the Philippines, her daughter, Maria Aurora, 33, and her son-inlaw, Felipe Buencamino III, lay in Manila funeral parlors.

Their bodies along with those of four other of the victims were brought down from the north under armored car escort. Thousands of grieving Filipinos visited the parlors.

There were cries from congressmen for martial law in the Huk country north of Manila, where the slayings occurred yesterday.

Second Ambush.

That land of violence produced a second ambush in the same general area only few hours after Mrs. Quezon's party was waylaid Mayor David Ventura of Santa Rosa, two members of the Philippine constabulary, and a civilian were reported killed.

Brig. Gen. Alberto Ramos, head of the constabulary, flew north and took charge of the manhunt.

There was official reluctance to identify the attackers as the armed peasants under communist command who go by the name of Hukbalahaps.

But Manila newspapers and most citizens agreed with Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, delegate to the United Nations. Stopping in San Francisco, he said he believed the Huks committed the killings.

Governor's Highway Program Rolls Ahead

Legislature Advances 3 Road Fund Bills; No Opposition Gas Tax Hike, Use Stamp

Two measures which play an important part in Governor Val Peterson's highway improvement program, the gas tax increase and increased equalization fees for non-gasoline powered vehicles were advanced by the legislature Thursday with virtually no opposition.

Both measures were advanced by a voice vote.

Another revenue-raising measure, the highway use stamp bill, was also advanced on general file in the Thursday afternoon session.

One Left Behind.

Only LB 401, increasing motor vehicle registration fees, remains on general file, and will probably be acted on Friday or Monday. In the debate on the floor, there was no objections raised to the increases, but some suggestions were made concerning the division of revenue.

The bill as written provides that a certain portion of the revenue shall go back to the counties. From this county share a certain part will be turned over to municipalities, the percentage depending upon the relationship of rural and urban population.

Davies Amendment.

An amendment to the bill by Sen. Tom Davies, Lincoln, was adopted Thursday. The amendment provides rates for trucks over 22 tons, formerly not contained in the bill. The fees, according to the new provision are $680 for 22-ton trucks, $710 for 23-ton, $740 for 24-ton and $770 for 25-ton. The amendment also increases dealers' license fees from the present $5 per car to $8.

The gas tax bill increases the state gasoline tax from five cents a gallon to six cents, and is expected to bring in about $3,400,000 a year in new revenue. This could be matched with a like amount of federal aid for highway construction.

LB 492, also advanced, raises the equalization fee collected from operators of non-gasoline powered vehicles in the same proportion as the gas tax increase in LB 399.

LB 402, the highway use stamp bill, provides that all owners of passenger cars purchase within 30 days after July, 1949, a $2 use stamp. Owners of cars for hire and trucks will be required to purchase a $5 stamp.

All revenue raised by the measure, which will be in force only one year, will be used by the state highway department to match federal funds for highway construction, according to the bill as now written.

Changes Readied.

However, Sen. Arthur Carmody, Trenton, Thursday suggested an amendment which would turn half of the proceeds back to the county for a similar purpose. His amendment may be offered to the legislature when the bill reaches select file. Some senators also expressed the opinion that a small percentage of the revenue should go to the counties for the expense of selling the stamps. Others suggested that a certain percentage of the proceeds go to municipalities for highway construction within the urban area.

An amendment by Sen. Fay Wood, Seward, introducer of the measure, was adopted Thursday, and will require the county treasurer to issue a receipt for the purchase of the stamp. The vehicle owner would be required to present this receipt to the county treasurer when applying for new license plates.

Wuhing Seized By Reds

Main Prop Of Shanghai Threatened From North

SHANGHAI —(AP)— Communist troops today seized Wuhing, a key point 40 miles north of Hangchow, the main prop for Shanghai.

Wuhing is 36 miles west of Kashing, control point on the Shanghai-Hangchow railroad.

Kashing, 62 miles southwest of Shanghai, was in the path of a Red Column driving south from Soochow (Wuhsien).

A nationalist communique said a Red drive on Shanghai appeared to be a move to protect the flank of the southbound columns.

Press Toward Hangchow.

It asserted the force coming from the west had been checked about 37 miles west of the metropolis near Kunshan, on the Shanghai-Nanking railway. Trains to Kunshan had quit running.

The Shanghai garrison reported the captors of Wuhing now were advancing south toward Hangchow. It earlier had reported the communist 23rd army was operating in this region.

It appears that the main Red push is aimed now at Hangchow, not Shanghai. With the capture of Hangchow, Shanghai would be sealed off by land.

This could mean that an attack on Shanghai will be delayed.

The Garrison said a strong force of government troops was deployed between Hangchow and the reds in the north.

Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger, commander of the western Pacific fleet, said U. S. navy forces would be retained at Woosung as long as needed "in the safe evacuation of American nationals from Shanghai." Woosung is some 10 miles from Shanghai where the Whangpoo flows into the Yangtze.

Backseat Driving Is Reserved For Women; Against Law For Men

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Backseat driving is a woman's prerogative. But for a man—well, it's just his tough luck.

Appellate court ordered a retrial for Mrs. Cora E. Statley yesterday after she claimed she drove through a pedestrian zone—and nearly through a pedestrian—on her husband's advice. She had been fine $10 in city court.

But the higher court pointed out that the municipal judge failed to instruct the jury on a California law which says a married woman is not responsible for a misdemeanor acting on command of her husband.

On the reverse or normal state of affairs, when wifey is in the backseat, the law is strangely silent.

It's a woman's world, buddy.

Law College Top Students Are Honored

New Chapter In History Beginning Says C. P. Peterson

University of Nebraska college of law students received activity and scholastic honors at the annual Law Student association banquet Thursday evening at the Lincoln hotel.

Former State Sen. C. Petrus Peterson of Lincoln, gave the principal address. Jean A. Wolf of Fallon, Nev., association president, was toastmaster.

Peterson told the law students that this is an interesting time to begin the practice of law.

Human Relationships Changed.

"A new chapter in history is beginning about now," he said, "and if that is so, it is not because of things that have happened in the United States, but because human relationships the world over have changed."

As members of the legal profession, we have a part in the moulding of the institutions under which we live, the senator continued. "We happen to live in the best place in the world—where hope is still part of the average person's life. We have the opportunity to maintain our equilibrium which we call democracy."

Professor Julius Cohen, president of the local chapter of the Order of the Coif, national law school honor society, presented certificates of election to the order to the six members of the graduating class of this year who received the highest scholastic honors. They are: Kenneth H. Elson, North Platte; Richard S. Harnsberger, Ashland; Robert L. Jeffrey, Lincoln; Robert S. Lowe, Wauneta; Daniel O'Leary, Olympia, Wash.; and Robert D. McNutt, Lincoln.

Medals to Sheaff, Kratz.

Professor David Dow, director of the practice laboratory, presented the awards for the Allen competition. Dean G. Kratz, of Sidney, and Roy A. Sheaff, of Lincoln, received the gold medals for winning the competition, and William A. Rundle, jr., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and John M. Stong of Billings, Mont., received the runner-up silver medals.

Professor Dow also presented the shingles for the students who served on the board of advisers this year. They are:

SENIORS—Dean G. Kratz, chairman, Sidney; Roy A. Sheaff, Lincoln; Gerald R. Jorgenson, Weeping Water; Robert R. Veach, Lincoln; Robert D. McNutt, Lincoln.

Others were: Stanley K. Hathaway, Scottsbluff; Stanley R. Scott, Shelby; Richard L. Coyne, Omaha; Frank E. Johnson, Manila, Ia.; C. Russell Lockwood, Dover, N. J.; Glenn A. Fiebig, Loup City, and Cecil T. Rothrock, Apalachin, N. Y.

KEYS AWARDED.

Dean Frederick K. Beutel, faculty editor of the Law Review, presented the keys for the students who served on the Board of Editors of the Law Review. They are:

SENIORS—William A. Rundle, jr., editor in chief, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Kenneth H. Elson, note editor, North Platte; Richard S. Harnsberger, recent case editor, Ashland; Daniel O'Leary, legislation editor, Olympia, Wash.; Charles H. Chase, book review editor, Schuyler; Robert S. Lowe, index editor, Wauneta; Joseph R. Seacrest, Lincoln; and John M. Peters, business manager, Omaha.

Others were: Lee C. White, Omaha; Richard L. Berkeheimer, Gordon; William M. Grossman, Edgar; Richard A. Knudsen, University Heights, O.; Jess C. Nielson, Dannebrog; Ray C. Simmons, Lincoln; Theodore C. Sorensen, Lincoln.

Rundle, Elson, Harnsberger, O'Leary and Lowe received keys embossed with a "2" for having served two years on the Review.

John B. Kalbin of Lincoln, entertained with a number of piano selections.

Cannon Plan To Erect New White House Said Gaining

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Rep. Cannon (D-Mo), today announced increasing support from every state in the union for his proposal to tear down the White House and erect a new building.

Cannon, chairman of the house appropriations committee, said letters backing his stand are pouring into his office from throughout the country.

House and senate conferees are deadlocked over the issue. They broke up Thursday after another unsuccessful session without setting another meeting date.

It is anticipated that Cannon will try to iron out a solution with Sen. McKellar (D-Tenn), senate appropriations committee chairman, in private conversations.

The senate included $5,400,000 in the first deficiency appropriation bill to remodel the White House, which has been vacated by President Truman and his family until it can be repaired.

Cannon's position, upheld by house democratic conferees, has been that the structure is too rickety to renovate.

SMITHY---

HOMOGENIZED Now! TO STAY FRESH LONGER
THE BREAD WITH THE "NEW LOOK"
SMITH'S ENRICHED BREAD

Be "Coffee-Wise"

If you have a taste for fine coffee with an eye to cost... LOOK FOR NOB HILL.

The simple fact is—you don't have to pay top price for top quality coffee if you are "coffee-wise." Buy the finest coffee you can find—but buy it in the whole bean.

You find some of the world's choicest coffee beans in a package of Nob Hill. Then you have them ground at your store, in a modern coffee mill. That releases for the first time all the rich flavor locked in those whole beans. No need for an expensive vacuum tin—just a simple paper package. And you save 5 to 10c a pound! All this... and fresher, too.

So be "coffee-wise"... look for...

Car Testing Methods Told At NU Convo

. . . By Ford Engineer

Every time an American housewife parks her average 1949 car in a tight spot, she generates one-quarter horsepower of effort to complete the job, William A. McConnell, of the Ford Motor company, told students and faculty of the University of Nebraska at Engineer's week convocation Friday.

McConnell, who is a former Lincoln man, is supervisor of the engineering test section for Ford.

"And although she may not know it, the tarque (twist) required to turn the front wheels of a car standing still is somewhat greater than would be required to hand crank the engine, if we still had hand cranks," Mr. McConnell said.

New instruments designed by automotive engineers to evaluate their products and compare them with competition were discussed by Mr. McConnell.

Advances Told.

"It is through these scientific testing methods that we are able to determine a car's advantages and to reveal its shortcomings, to establish the worth of new design features and to obtain an answer to design problems that cannot be solved with pencils and paper," McConnell explained.

Commenting on the importance of improved aerodynamic design in postwar cars, McConnell said:

"Reduction in the wind resistance and weight in the 1949 car has resulted in a 30 per cent reduction in the horsepower required to drive the car at 60 miles an hour."

"We have found that there is as much possibility of obtaining improved fuel economy and performance by giving the engine less work to do as may be realized by making the engine more efficient."

While Ford has recently constructed a test hill with a 30 per cent grade—comparable to famed Filbert street in San Francisco—at its Dearborn, Mich., test track, the company also makes use of a towing dynamo-meter which gives accurate results comparable to any height or slope anywhere in the country.

"This magic mountain can be adjusted to any gradient to suit requirements," McConnell explained. "It consists of a power absorption device attached to the rear of a test vehicle which provides a drag load and simulates the downhill gravity component which the vehicle must overcome on a grade."

INDIA BOOSTS PAPER PRODUCTION

NEW DELHI, India — (AP) — The government has approved eight schemes for producing a total of 70,000 tons of paper annually.

Industries Minister S. P. Mookerjee said in parliament that the government has allowed the import of the necessary machinery for the schemes. He said a factory is being established in the central provinces for producing 30,000 tons of newsprint annually.

Mookerjee also reported that India's production of cement is 2,245,000,000 tons annually. After partition there were 19 cement producting factories, he said. The government, he added, has sanctioned 19 schemes with a total annual capacity of 282,000,000 tons.

Bridges Replaced

U. S. highway 20 and state route 108 were open Friday southeast of O'Neill for the first time in several weeks, the highway department reported.

High water on the Elkhorn river had washed out three bridges which now have been replaced.

MILLIONS NOW USE CHEWING-GUM LAXATIVE
Amazing Laxative Action Detours the Stomach

• Medical authorities say that one reason why laxatives may upset you is that they irritate the stomach.

But FEEN-A-MINT, the delicious chewing-gum laxative, works in an entirely different way! The action of FEEN-A-MINT'S special medicine actually DETOURS the stomach. That is, it does not act while in the stomach, but only when farther along in the lower digestive tract...where it should! Thus, FEEN-A-MINT does not upset the stomach!

And scientists say chewing makes FEEN-A-MINT'S fine medicine more effective—"readies" it so it flows gently, gradually into the system. You feel wonderful again quickly!

GARDEN GLANCES WITH THE MOON

"That God once loved a garden
We learn in Holy Writ.
And seeing gardens in the spring
I well can credit it."
—Winifred Mary Letts

By CECILE PARRISH SWINGLE

It is first lunar quarter, you know, and the moon is in the earthy and semi-fruitful sign, Taurus, until 9:47 tonight. Then it will enter the barren and airy sign, Gemini. Monday morning at 6:40 it will enter the watery and exceedingly fruitful sign, Cancer, and Wednesday afternoon just after one o'clock it will enter the fiery and very barren sign, Leo. Second lunar quater will begin Thursday afternoon.

Ah, these April days have gone by with astonishing speed. Each one seems faster than the other, and there is much, almost too much yet to be done in our Easter is late the spring is late too and many a late-sown seed has been known to produce plants superior in every way to those sown earlier in the same season. Every packet of flower seed admonishes us not to sow them until the ground is warm. So next week is just the time to be about this. Zinnia seed in particular will rot easily in cold soil although the plants are among the hardiest of our annual flowers.

Zinnias Indispensable

And the very thought of zinnias reminds me to tell you that Luther Burbank zinnias are a must in our gardens this year. Not only because March 7 marked the 100th anniversary of this great plant breeder's birth, but because they have unusual pastel coloring that will bring joy to your garden be it large or small, very new or very old. This strain of zinnias was introduced last year, remember my telling you of them? It was developed by David Burpee, a relative, from seed found in one of Luther Burbank's trunks after his death.

There are many other zinnias indispensable in our Midwest gardens because they can take our summer heat and give us splashes of bright color where it is most needed after the display of spring and summer perennials. The and there is a choice of bright colors in their king-sized blooms, also pure white, pale lavender, yellow and pink. The lilliputs are the tiny ones so desirable for miniature arrangement and come in any array of color.

Sun Moss.

Sow sun moss, Portulaca, along a sunny walk or driveway. 'Tis low growing and the two-inch flowers are like jewels of a morning. California poppies too will do well in full sun. Their lacy grey-green foliage is beauty in itself to say nothing of their glossy yellow blooms. You may now have them in vermillion red if you so choose.

Marigolds you may have tall or short. The African marigolds are the tall ones and there now are carnation-flowered, peony flowered and chrysanthemum-flowered ones, in lovely primrose yellow or deep orange. The French marigolds are the short bedding ones. Butterball has pure yellow blooms; Spry is fancy, yellow with a gingle mark of rusty copper; Naughty Marietta was a new introduction of last year, taller than other French marigolds, with two-inch single yellow and rust blooms All marigolds do best in full sun or at least full morning and early afternoon sun.

For that difficult shady spot in your garden—but we never consider shady spots difficult—so many of our most choice plants require partial shade. It just isn't good gardening to attempt to grow sun-loving plants in shade or shade-loving plants in full sun. Of course you'll have poor results. You must not go against nature. Sow seeds of balsam in your shady spots. The camellia-flowered ones are very choice and grow about 18 to 20 inches high. Coleus has a wealth of interesting foliage. Buy plants if you choose, but you can grow it from seed. Then there is Tortenia, the wishbone flower with its velvety purple and lavender blossoms with yellow throats. Last use Lobelia, either white or one of the blues as a border plant. What fine mounds of blue you'll have all summer long.

So until Monday.

Old-Fashioned Flowers

On them none can depend.
Old-fashioned flowers ask little care, department that Ireland would come into the North Atlantic defense pact if Britain agrees to given up Northern Ireland. However, Secretary Acheson turned the Irish down cold. In fact, he reminded them that he was not bribing anyone to enter the North Atlantic pact.

The administration charges that senate republicans stampeded democratic procedure by bottling the nomination of Mon Wallgren up in the armed services committee, don't coincide with the inside facts.

What democratic Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland, the committee chairman, didn't tell the press was that G.O.P. Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon was ready to cast the deciding vote for floor action, but Tydings missed the boat.

After G.O.P. Senator Chan Gurney of South Dakota moved to table Wallgren's nomination as chairman of the national security resources board, Morse asserted behind closed doors that while he was personally fond of Wallgren he didn't think he was competent enough to head up the NSRB "because of some appointments he made while governor of Washington."

However, Morse added, if someone offered a substitute motion (to Gurney's) to report the namination "unfavorably"—that is, with a recommendation against confirmation—he would vote for it. This would have given the full senate a chance to debate the issue openly, instead of having Wallgren's name bottled up in committee by the present vote to table.

Morse's vote would have carried. However, Tydings and his democratic colleagues wouldn't play ball, with the result that Gurney's motion to table carried. That is why Wallgren's confirmation can't be debated on the senate floor, where the final vote probably would be for him.

Now Salmon Must Tell Their Age

MAYWOOD, Ill. — (AP) — Salmon swimming up their native rivers to spawn next spring must now face an added hazard. They will not only get caught but will also have to reveal their age. Knowing the age of selected fish from the 1949 catch will help scientists of the American Can company in making quality tests of the new pack.

A salmon's age is determined by putting one of his scales under a microscope. The rings on the scale reveal the fish's approximate age, in much the same way that annular rings tell the age of a tree. The method also enables the canning expert to tell how much time the fish has spent in fresh or salt water.

Council Grants Weiler License

Val Weiler, operator of the drive-in, off-sale beer store at 128 South Sixteenth, has his beer license.

The city council in compliance with the decision of the state liquor control commission Friday granted Weiler's license. The commision ruled Thursday that Weiler and Roy Wythers who operates a liquor store at the same location should not be denied licenses because they operate drive-ins.

The council earlier had denied Weiler's application and forwarded Wyther's to the commission with its disapproval. The commission granted Wyther's application.

The council, meeting in special session Friday, granted a renewal of Josephine Balog's on-and-off-sale beer license at 1020 P.

John C. Wilkens' application for a renewal of his Huskerville off-sale beer license was deferred until Monday. Wilkens who was granted a rent reduction from $100 to $50 monthly by the council last Monday has been unable to conclude a new lease agreement with the city. He thinks $50 monthly too high and wants to sell ice cream to increase business.

Mouse Makes Noise Like A Wren

GRAYVILLE, Ill.—(AP)—The sounds with a musical quality prompted Mr. and Mrs. James Girot to peek into their utility room. Possibly a wren had got into the room somehow, they thought.

What they saw so astonished them that they called over a neighbor, Mrs. Mildred Wimsatt. They swear that a mouse was warbling and tweeting with all the gusto of a bird.

72 Dead In Train Crash

100 Others Injured In 3-Way Smash-Up

JOHANNESBURG — (INS) — Seventy-two persons, including two Europeans were killed and about 100 were injured today when three trains collided at a small, main-line station eight miles west of Johannesburg.

Johannesburg police and firemen were dispatched to the scene, and enlisted the help of 8,000 natives to clear the debris and assist rescue efforts.

Rail Rate Hike Rehearing To Be Argued May 27

The railway commission today set for oral argument May 27 a motion for re-hearing on the application of all railroads serving Nebraska to increase intrastate rates four per cent. The commission had denied the application.

A request by motor carriers for a 19 per cent increase on classified ratings and a 14 per cent increase in rates on exceptions to the classifications was re-set for hearing June 20. A hearing on the matter scheduled for May 23 was cancelled.

Corn Stocks This Year Far Above '48 Mark

Oats Total For State Also Rises

National Figures Take Similar Jump

Nebraska farmers held 146,945,00 bushels of corn in storage April 1.

The state-federal bureau of agricultural statistics said this was about three times as much as April 1 a year ago.

With an additional 1,759,000 bushels in other positions, the Nebraska grand total this year was 148,704,000 bushels. Last year it was 57,432,000 bushels.

For the nation, the grand total of 1,833 million bushels was the highest in the seven years of record keeping.

The April 1 Nebraska oats stock total was 30,568,000 bushels. This was 38 per cent over the 22,107,000 bushels of a year ago. Farm stocks this year were 29,825,000 bushels, off farm stocks 743,000 bushels.

The national oats figure of 606 million bushels was the second highest on record, being exceeded in 1946.

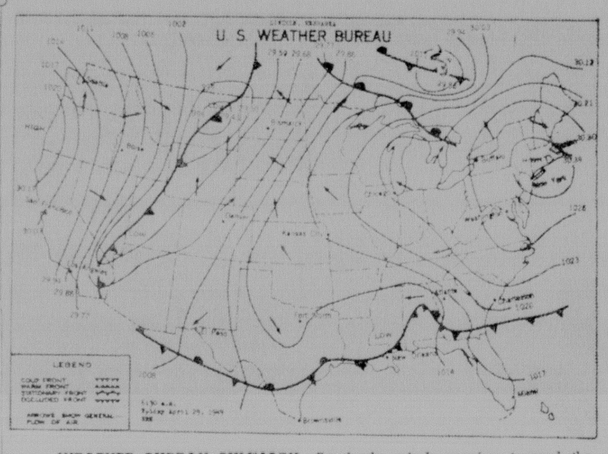
Barley Figure Mounts.

The state barley figure was 4,192,000 bushels as compared with 3,251,000 bushels a year ago. The farm stocks were 3,866,000 bushels, off farms 326,000.

Soybeans stored in Nebraska totalled 126,000 bushels. Last year it was 84,000 bushels.

Nationally the barley stocks of 162 million bushels was second highest on record, exceeded only in 1943.

The national corn figures showed but 57 million bushels in off farm positions. This, the bureau said, was much below the usual proportion.



WEATHER BUREAU SUMMARY—Southerly winds moving toward the trough of low pressure central over eastern Montana have prolonged the warm spell in the upper Missouri Valley, where temperatures in the 80s occurred over the Dakotas and Montana Thursday afternoon, while high readings were in the 70s over Nebraska, Iowa, and Missouri, and in the 60s in Oklahoma, southern Kansas, and northwestern Texas. Rainfall has become light in the central and west Gulf states but was heavy in the 24 hours ending early Friday in the interior sections of South Carolina and Georgia, where 1 to 2 inches fell in some sections. The inflow of Pacific air has extended the shower area in the northwest eastward to Idaho and extreme southwestern Montana. With further eastward movement of the western trough of low pressure cloudiness will increase in the Plains states, with continued pleasant temperatures, but with showers in some sections.

Better Basin Coordination Urgent Need

Inter-agency Group Warned By Peterson

CONCORDIA, Kas. — (AP) — Governor Val Peterson of Nebraska has warned that the Missouri basin inter-agency committee could be supplanted by something like the Missouri Valley authority unless it better coordinates its efforts.

Peterson told the committee yesterday that it must accept its full responsibility on river development projects in its area or "we go out of business."

Today, the committee was to tour the Pick-Sloan projects in Nebraska including the Harlan county dam on the Republican river. The tour was to end tonight at McCook, Neb.

Seeks Individual Study.

Gov. Peterson issued his warning after he had asked the committee what it planned to do, if anything, about setting up a technical sub-committee which might have sufficient time to study individual projects thoroughly.

Doubt was expressed by the committee chairman, W. G. Sloan of Billings, Mont., and co-author of the Pick-Sloan plan, and two other governors that the committee had the authority to pass on individual projects.

Sloan and Governors George T. Mickelson of South Dakota and Fred C. Aandahl of North Dakota said their understanding of the committee was that it was to help co-ordinate efforts of the various agencies.

Peterson said he did not want to sit on the committee and become a target for every sharpshooter in the country unless some means were set up so that each project could be examined thoroughly on the basis of feasibility.

Sloan said the Pick-Sloan plan had been accepted by congress in its entirety and not on the feasibility of each proposed river development. He added it was never intended to be placed before congress on a unit by unit basis.

Peterson said advocates of the proposed Missouri valley authority would use any shortcomings of the inter-agency committee as a weapon in their fight to replace it.

Problems Interlocked.

"If we are going to keep autonomous control," he said, "we've got to do something about it. I've got to know more than just what's going on in Nebraska."

He pointed out that the committee represented 10 states in the Missouri valley area. He insisted the problems of those states in the river development were closely interlocked.

Mickelson declared the states themselves could do a little bit more planning and place their suggestions before the committee which could then pass them on to the federal agencies.

"Otherwise you are setting up an authority," Nickelson said, "and we are not an authority. We are a co-ordinating committee."

About 100 persons attended yesterday's session.

Next month the committee will meet in South Dakota, the site and date to be announced later.

Jones New Faculty Member At Hastings

HASTINGS, Neb. — (AP) — Archie H. Jones of Waukesha, Wis., will join the Hastings college faculty next September as an instructor in political science and history.

In making that announcement, President William M. French said Jones would fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Professor Lyndon Musolf. Musolf has accepted a similar position on the University of North Dakota faculty.

Wherry May Attend Stock Growers Meet

ALLIANCE, Neb.—(AP)—Senator Kenneth S. Wherry of Nebraska is expected to attend the 60th convention of the Nebraska Stock Growers association here in June.

W. A. Johnson, association secretary-treasurer, said that Senator Wherry had promised to attend the convention if it was at all possible. Johnson said Wherry would be one of the main speakers.

Advance reservations indicate a record attendance of more than 1,000 stock growers, Johnson said. The convention is slated for June 9, 10 and 11.

Morrow Quits Post With Potato Group

ALLIANCE, Neb.—(AP)—William Morrow, general manager of the Nebraska Certified Potato Growers association, has announced his resignation, effective April 30.

Highway Group Favors Gas Tax, Auto Fee Hikes

O'NEILL, Neb.—(AP)—For the second time this year, the Nebraska Highway 281 association has gone on record as favoring a one cent gallon increase in the state gas tax and a hike in auto registration fees.

Meeting here yesterday, the association moved to notify the governor and state senators of its position. It stipulated, however, that the revenue be used for road purposes only.

The association had originally taken its stand in favor of the revenue increases at a meeting in St. Paul in January.

The association, semi-active recently, was "re-activated" at the meeting and officers were re-elected. They included President Earl W. Carpenter, Red Cloud, Vice President Julius D. Cronin, O'Neill, and Secretary-treasurer Harry R. Purdum, Hastings.

The association also decided to incorporate.

Ninety-six persons from Nebraska and South Dakota attended the meeting.

Harlan Dam Work Is Halted Due To Change In Plans

REPUBLICAN CITY, Neb. — (AP)—Technical changes in construction plans fo rthe Harlam county dam today had brought a temporary halt to the pouring of concrete for the Republican river structure.

Several workmen have been laid off temporarily as a result.

Information obtained from headquarters of the Harlan County Construction company, the army engineers office in Republican City and engineer headquarters in Kansas City indicated that the change involves the lowering of the dam foundation from the level originally planned.

"There is no defect in the rock foundation for the dam," a construction company represenative said, "but the workers must go deeper than had been tentatively planned."

It was described as "purely a routine foundation problem."

South Dakota Seeks Means Of Obtaining More Power For State

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Case (R-SD) said yesterday he felt South Dakota could get needed electric power from public projects in the state through other means than a Missouri Valley Administration.

"There are other ways to get it than through an MVA," he told a reporter.

Under the Pick-Sloan plan for development of the Missouri valley, public power districts, such as Nebraska has, would get priority on electricity produced at various dams.

Case sought unsuccessfully a few weeks ago to have the house amend the interior department appropriation bill so as to prohibit export of power from South Dakota's Fort Randall dam until the state's power needs had been met.

Flying Farmers Holding Two-Day Meet At Hastings

HASTINGS, Neb.—A board of directors meeting opened the Nebraska Flying Farmers two-day convention here this morning.

Today's program will include a tour of the Hastings naval ammunition depot and a "family air frolic" tonight.

James D. Ramsey, director of the state department of aeronautics, and Frank Trumbauer, assistant to the regional administrator for personal flying development of the civil aeronautics administration, will address the Saturday sessions.

Twice-Beaten Tom Dewey May Take Another Shot

. . . At Highest Political Office, Close Friends Say

ALBANY, N. Y.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who bit the dust twice in running for president, nurses a deep-down desire for another shot at the White House.

This came out today when an unimpeachable source thoroughly familiar with Dewey's views disclosed that the 1944 and 1948 republican standard bearer, contrary to frequent reports, has not decided to return to private life when his gubernatorial term ends Dec. 31, 1950.

Neither has the government decided to try to continue in public life beyond that date.

In short, he has not made up his mind. He won't until he has to.

Close friends insist—and Dewey does not deny—that the presidential bug still is in his system.

This, plus other evidence at hand, has led friends to conclude that Dewey now is more inclined than not toward extending his career as a public servant—with a view to being in good position should he ever get a new crack at the big prize of politics.

Dewey himself said after his defeat by President Truman that he did not intend again to seek the office. The governor, often tagged as a realist, still cannot see any real prospects of winning the GOP presidential nomination a third time — under foreseeable conditions. But he knows that conditions change, often radically and quickly.

The governor sails next Thursday for a six-week European trip that could serve as a springboard for a bid for the senate seat held by the aging democratic senator Robert F. Wagner.

The term of Wagner, who has been ill for a long time, expires at the end of next year. There have been recurring rumors that Wagner would resign before July 8, which would permit a contest for his seat in the general election next November. There also have been as many reports that he will stay on until the end of his term.

If Wagner quits after July 8 Dewey could resign as governor, and his successor, Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley, could appoint him to succeed Wagner. Then Dewey would be the GOP candidate in November, 1950, for a full six-year term.

Federal Aid Bill Allows Local Control

Titus Tells Local Teachers; Predicts Early Senate Passage

Although there has always been federal aid to education there has never been a time when the federal government dictated what to teach.

That statement was made Thursday night by Mary Titus of the legislative federal division of the National Education association before a group of Lincoln teachers at the Y.W.C.A.

Discussing pending legislation providing federal aid to states, Miss Titus said aid has helped states "immeasurably" by making their educational institutions financially sound.

Aid Justified.

In justification for such legislation, she said the big factor is the "disproportionate number of children in different areas." She cited New Jersey and New Mexico as examples.

"New Jersey has only 195 children to every 1,000 population while New Mexico has 295 to every 1,000."

The provisions of the present bill, S-246, are identical to those of S-472 which passed the senate in the 80th congress, she said. Of the $300,000,000 in funds provided in the legislation, a total of $1,300,000 is earmarked for Nebraska, she reported.

"Had it not been for House Majority Leader Halleck," she declared, "we would have federal aid to our schools now."

Strong Support.

Miss Titus said the pending bill has strong bi-partisan support and she believes it will pass the senate within the next week. Among those supporting the bill are Senators Robert Taft of Ohio, and James Murray of Montana.

Lest some doubt remain as to how much a part the federal government would play if the bill were passed, Miss Titus cited budget figures.

"We spend three billion dollars annually state and nationally on education. The bill provides for $300,000,000 federal aid. Thus, the federal government would be contributing only ten per cent of the total and its part would be [illegible] minor."

"Local communities would be still paying 90 per cent and all control would remain in their hands. The bill stipulates that the federal government has no power to say what should be taught."

Federal aid to education would go a long way toward dispelling racial prejudices in the south by providing a "proportionate share" of the federal funds for the negro pupils, she said.

Miss Titus was introduced by Betty Elmen, president of the Lincoln Teachers association. She addressed a general meeting of teachers at Everett junior high in the afternoon.

—Supreme Court—

Lower Court Reversed In Solheim Suit

Compensation Grant For Injury Approved

The state Supreme court Friday upheld an award granted by the workmen's compensation court to Selmer A. Solheim and reversed a Lancaster county District court verdict.

The suit was against the Hastings Housing Co., Kearney Construction Co. and Anchor Casualty Co. The District court action in dismissing the suit against the housing company was upheld, but casualty company was held as defendant in the action.

Solheim was injured in an accident and totally disabled for a period of 20 weeks. The award was for $15 a week during total disability with diminishing payments during convalescence.

Solheim, who was serving as construction manag[illegible] of the Kearney Construction company, was injured while on duty when his car ran into a bridge a few miles out of Kearney on February 11, 1944.

Douglas Ruling Upheld.

The court upheld the Douglas county District findings in behalf of the defendants in the suit of Jennie M. Parrott against George G. Hofmann et al. The suit sought to establish an agreement for a constructive trust.

The court reversed the decree of the Douglas county district court in the case of the Trust estate of William P. Myers and T. Porter Bennett against Ruth W. Dennis et al. holding that the court was without jurisdiction.

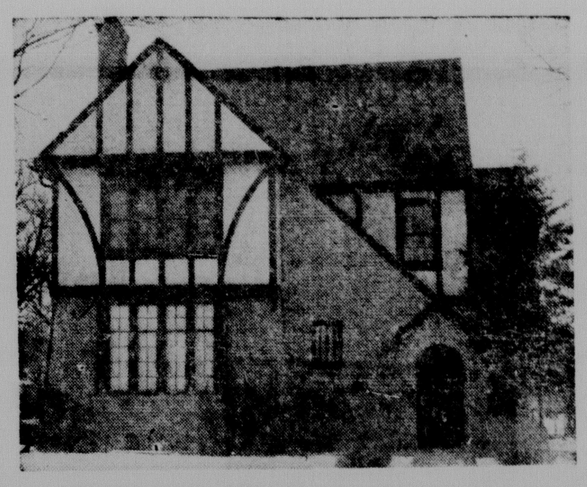
Princess Margaret Soothes Irate Naples

CAPRI—(INS)—Princess Margaret soothed irate Naples officials today by explaining that she missed an official tour because the surf below her bay-front hotel played a "wonderful lullaby" and she overslept.

The princess planned to tour the romantic Isle of Capri, long a playground for the international set, on this, the third day of her month-long vacation in Italy.

BOY'S ARROW KILLS COMPANION

HAMBURG, Germany—(AP)—A German boy aged 14 shot an arrow into the air at Stade, near here. The arrow fell 100 feet away and killed his 11-year-old playmate. Police said the bow was exceptionally powerful and made for hunting. The arrow had a steel tip.



LOCAL FRATERNITY JOINS NATIONAL—The Delta Omega Phi fraternity house (above), Fifty-first and Huntington, will house a new fraternal group Saturday. The local fraternity at Nebraska Wesleyan university becomes Gamma Phi chapter of Theta Chi, national social fraternity, tomorrow.

New Fraternity To Be Activated At Neb. Wesleyan

. . . Theta Chi Chapter

A chapter of Theta Chi, national social fraternity, will be activated on the Nebraska Wesleyan university campus Saturday.

Delta Omega Phi, a local which has existed at Wesleyan since 1905, will merge into the national organization.

Theta Chi national president Stuart Kelley of Omaha will be present for the installation ceremony which will be conducted by the chapter from Iowa State college in Ames, Ia.

The Wesleyan chapter will be known as Gamma Phi chapter.

Delta Omega Phi was organized under the name of Dialectic society in 1905. The organization first was formed to meet a need for trained debators. The name was suggested by the late Dean F. A. Alabaster and has a Greek derivation meaning logical disputation or debate.

Atchison is Head.

Twelve charter members formed the initial group which functioned as a debate organization for several years. However, the society followed the trend of other literary societies to become social groups and in 1917 became Delta Omega Phi, a local social fraternity.

Theta Chi will be the second national fraternity to become active at Nebraska Wesleyan. Upsilon chapter to Phi Kappa Tau has functioned since 1923.

Officers of Delta Omega Chi who will become the first set of executives for Theta Chi, are: President, Wendell Atchison, Cozad, vice president, Dave Rieke, Murdock; recording secretary, Keith Slagg, Valentine; corresponding secretary, Bruce Deal, Lincoln; house manager-treasurer, Cal Bones, Allen; editor and news reporter, Don Meitzner, Wilcox; pledge master, Bruce Juelfs, Potter, and chaplain, Bruce Link, St. Michael.

Comptroller Measure To Be Submitted

. . . To Legislature

A bill providing for an $8,500 a year state comptroller will be submitted to the legislature, the budget committee voted at an executive session Thursday. Chief qualification will be at least 10 years business experience. Term will be six years.

Duties of the comptroller, who will be appointed by the governor, will be taken over from those presently assigned to the tax commissioner. The bill provides the comptroller shall:

1. Check agency and department budgets.
2. Recommend consolidations and reassignment of duties in various departments.
3. Check and approve purchases.
4. Keep control accounts of all state spending.
5. Attend budget hearings.

The new comptroller would be authorized to select needed help and fix their salaries.

The committee also voted to send to the legislature their two appropriation bills as amended. Permission for the action had already been obtained by Chairman John Callan.

Higher Budget.

The breakdown of departmental appropriations had not been completed, Chairman Callan said, but would be ready by Monday. While he had no exact figures, Callan said the total would be slightly larger than the governor's budget.

The miscellaneous appropriations and claims committee also submitted LB 541 which appropriates a total of $91,470 to pay claims against the state. The claims include 52 against the highway department with 44 for damages in accidents involving state vehicles.

The Nebraska Press association has a claim of $12,026 for publishing election notices. Compensation court award of $5,344 in the death of Harry E. Eagelston, employe of the state railway commission was accepted.

Excessive payment of estate taxes was recognized in a refund claim of $12,113 in the estate of Mary M. Reed.

Two-Thirds Of Romania Draws Iron Curtain

. . . To Foreign Diplomats

BUCHAREST, Romania—(AP)—Romania barred foreign diplomats from about two-thirds of its territory today.

A circular note handed to foreign embassies, legations and missions by the ministry of foreign affairs at noon today listed certain "restricted areas" where foreign diplomats are not permitted to travel, including Banat, the western province which borders on Yugoslavia; Bucovina, in the northwest; Moldavia, in the east; and Dobruja, on the Black sea.

When teen-agers are making fudge they might like to try adding marshmallows to it rather than nutmeats. The marshmallows should be cut into quarters with a wet knife or scissors and be added just before the fudge is ready to be poured into the pan.

A Defy Issued By Tito

Yugoslavia Determined To Remain Independent, He Informs The World

By KINGSBURY SMITH

(European General Manager, International News Service.)

(World Copyright, 1949, by International News Service. Reproduction in whole or part strictly prohibited.)

PARIS — (INS) — Marshal Tito served notice today that Yugoslavia will resist firmly all efforts to divide his country as the Russian cominform has been reported attempting through formation of a separate Macedonian state.

He said that the Yugoslavian people will remain firmly united in determination to preserve the independence and territorial integrity of their nation.

In an exclusive statement to International News Service, the Yugoslavian leader, who dared to defy the Kremlin by refusing to accept complete Soviet domination of his country, also served notice that the Macedonian people want "no separation" from the rest of Yugoslavia.

Talk of Separate State.

This was in connection with an allegedly communist-inspired move to link the Macedonian populations of Yugoslavia, Albania and Greece into a separate and independent state.

The movement has been described as being directed against Tito himself.

Tito answered these is a series of nine questions submitted to him by this correspondent. He said that the "ardent wish" of all Yugoslavia is to see "a peaceful understanding and settlement of all controversial questions between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics."

First Statement.

In the first public statement given to a western journalist since his break with Moscow and the cominform more than a year ago, Tito made clear his position with respect to recent communist attacks against him regarding Macedonia.

These attacks led to rumors that the Soviets are planning to sponsor establishment of a puppet Macedonian free state in an effort to undermine Tito's position.

These rumors were strengthened by inclusion of anti-Tito Macedonian leaders in the so-called "free government" of Greece whose establishment was announced recently.

It was this situation that prompted the writer to submit the series of questions to Tito telegraphically on April 6.

Marshal Tito declined to answer specific questions about inclusion of these pro-Russian Yugoslavian political opponents in the Greek rebel regime or its significance.

Instead, he confined himself to a warning that the Yugoslavian people are determined to preserve their independence.

Tito's telegram, signed "President of the government and marshal of Yugoslavia," said:

"Sir, you have put to me nine questions and to the first six I do not wish to answer at all. Only the last three questions come into consideration.

"Your seventh question reads as follows:

"'Are the people of Yugoslavia determined to preserve the independence and territorial integrity of the present federation of Yugoslavian people's republics?'

"I consider this question almost superfluous. Nevertheless, I shall answer it.

Firmly Determined.

"It goes without saying that the Yugoslav peoples are firmly determined to safeguard their independence as well as the territorial integrity of all the six federal republics of Yugoslav peoples.

"The peoples of Yugoslavia have sustained too many sacrifices for their independence, brotherhood and unity—in one word for the new Federal people's republic—and they cannot renounce the greatest historical achievement of their war for liberation.

"Your eighth question reads as follows:

"'What would be the attitude of the inhabitants of the Macedonian people's republics to any foreign move to separate that territory from the rest of the Yugoslavian federation of people's republics?'

"The people itself already has answered this question through its representatives and is answering it every day by building indefatigably and with utmost enthusiasm its happier life in fraternal community with other people of the federal people's republic of Yugoslavia.

Want No Separation.

"Accordingly the people of the people's republic of Macedonia wishes no separation whatsoever from other Yugoslav peoples because it has achieved all its ideals in the federal people's republic of Yugoslavia—that is, a full national equality in rights and the possibility for its development in all fields.

"Your ninth question reads as follows:

"'Generalissimo Stalin in his answers to my recent questionnaire indicated his eagerness for a peaceful understanding between Russia and the United States. Do you share that hope?'

"I am deeply convinced that I express

TITO . . . Macedonian people want "no separation," he insists.

the wishes of all Yugoslav peoples which correspond to the wishes of all the progressive men in the world if I say that achievement of peaceful understanding and settlement of all controversial questions between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics represent our ardent wish."

Tito's replies were addressed to the International News Service Paris office from the government palace in Belgrade.

"Atom Bomb Problem Too Big For Younger People"---Lewis

. . . Best Learning Years After 30, AIB Told

"There are many vacancies in top-bracket jobs without people to fill them," Leroy Lewis of New York City told the Lincoln chapter of the American Institute of Banking Thursday night.

Lewis, the institute's national educational director, spoke at the local chapter's annual banquet at the oCrnhusker hotel.

Begin at 30.

"Some authorities on education are now agreed," the speaker said, "that boyhood may not be the best time for learning—that the best learning years are after 30."

Problems like the effectiveness of the North Atlantic pact and use of the atomic bomb, he said, are too big for younger people.

A university education is a good start, but the mature education, philosophy of life, and personal assets are developed in the continuing education after graduation, Lewis explained.

Members of the chapter board of directors for next year were announced at the banquet. They are:

George Dunlap — Miss Wilma Klein
Max Peterson — Bob Schilke
Fred Hollingsworth — Elmer Peterson

Announcement was made of the awarding of an A.I.B. pre-standard certificate to Ted Thompson.

The banquet marked completion of 15 years of A.I.B. activity here, Ellis C. Dann, acting chapter president, said. Cliff Weston introduced the speaker. Entertainment was given by the Nebraska Wesleyan male A cappella choir.

Mayor's Power Under New Government For Beatrice Questioned

BEATRICE, Neb.— (AP) —The question of how much power to give the mayor under the mayor-council system of government has occupied this city's charter convention.

The convention is drawing up a new city government charter.

Debate centered on whether the city engineer should be appointed by the mayor or by the council. The committee on the executive branch of city government, headed by Oscar L. Clark, jr., recommended that the engineer be appointed by, and responsible to, the mayor. Some other convention delegates suggested that giving the mayor this power might bring on charges that an effort was being made to draft a "city manager plan in disguise."

ONE OF THE SPRING'S SPECIAL EVENTS of the Lincoln League of Women Voters was the membership tea on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walton C. Ferris.

In the picture, from left to right, are Mrs. Gilbert S. Willey, one of the two members presiding at the refreshment table; Mrs. Edward C. Fisher, chairman of the tea arrangements; Mrs. William L. Day, membership chairman; Mrs. F. L. Duley, president of the Lincoln League of Women Voters; Mrs. Walton C. Ferris, the hostess, and Mrs. H. J. Colburn, pouring.

The tea fallowed the talk given by George Morris, superintendent of the state reformatory.

WEEK-END-- Neat But Not Gaudy

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF the weddings of two prominent young women in Lincoln, we could say that the week-end is not as glamorous as a May Day week-end should be—However the calendar is dotted, not profusely, with activity, pleasant, but not hectic—

FOUND THAT A BELATED birthday celebration was on the books at the University club today—Mrs. J. C. Ridnour was the hostess and her guest list included the members of a birthday club who were honoring the anniversary of Mrs. Luther Bonham of Fairbury.

AND TODAY—at the Lincoln Country club, Mrs. John C. Whitten entertained the members of her Friday Bridge club—Luncheon places were arranged for nine with bridge, naturally, the afternoon diversion.

THE FRIDAY EVENING calendar, at the LCC, has a no-host dinner for a sixsome—Mr. and Mrs. C. Robert Mowbray, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mowbray and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace de Brown, who will dine together following an afternoon of golf.

SPEAKING OF NO HOST affairs—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Osborn have arranged for a no-host dinner on Saturday evening at the Lincoln Country club, for the members of their dinner club — Following dinner the group of thirteen will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Osborn for an evening of bridge.

THOSE TWO WEEK-END brides we mention are Miss Velda Benda, whose marriage to Sidney Anderson is an event of Saturday afternoon at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Episcopal—and Miss Ruth Ann Finkle, whose marriage to Phillip Eugene Lyness will take place Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church.

APROPOS OF BRIDES—Miss Billette Trombla will honor a June bride — Miss Peggie Lawrie, whose marriage to Russell Gustavson will be an event of Saturday, June 18, when she entertains at a garden "coffee," and picnic shower on Sunday morning at her home. Twelve guests have been invited for the 10 o'clock affair. The buffet table, arranged in the garden, will be appointed with May baskets and spring flowers.

AND THE PARTIES for Miss Evelyn Obrist, whose marriage to John P. Aylward will take place on Saturday, May 21, began last Monday when Mrs. Joseph Partington and Miss Pat Topin were hostesses at an evening party and kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Partington. Twelve guests were invited for the shower and an informal evening.

LEARNED OF SOME guests who arrived in Lincoln—Mrs. H. A. Duey and son, David, have come from San Leandro, Cal., to spend a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Duey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Trombla. Mrs. Duey and David will be joined here in time for the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Trombla on May 18, by Dr. Duey, and the Duey twins, Richard and Robert.

THEN WE HEARD that Mrs. Nelson Blough of Syracuse, Ind., and Mrs. T. A. Desnoyer of Jackson, Mich., arrived Thursday evening for a two weeks visit with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clair H. Carney.

ROYALTY — OMAHA BRANCH, was in town Thursday, the king and queen of Ak-Sar-Ben William Lane and Miss Katherine Coad, who were host and hostess to the wives of the Nebraska legislators when they entertained at luncheon at Hotel Cornhusker. Luncheon places were arranged for twenty-five. Also included in the guest list were Mrs. Lane, and Miss Coad's mother.

ONE OF THE EVENTS for Sunday afternoon is the annual family open house, between the hours of 3 o'clock and 5 o'clock, at the Phi Kappa Psi house. Hostesses for the affair will be the members of the Phi Kappa Psi Alliance, and the guest list will include the parents of active members and all alumni of the fraternity.

Presiding at the refreshment table will be Mrs. Lloyd True, Mrs. Archie Furr, Mrs. Vance Traphagen and Mrs. Earl Coryell.

The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Mrs. Perry Branch, chairman, Mrs. Earl R. Wilson and Mrs. Doane Pickering.

Lincoln Group Attend Meeting Of Delta Zeta

Leaving Lincoln on Friday to attend a conference of Province VIII, South, of Delta Zeta sorority, to be held at Denver, Colo., this week end were a group of active and alumnae members of Beta Tau chapter on Nebraska Wesleyan university campus.

Presiding at the conference, which will be attended by delegates from Rho chapter, Denver, Colo., Beta Sigma chapter, Fort Collins, Colo., Beta Tau chapter, Lincoln, and Gamma Gamma chapter, Marshall, Mo., will be Miss Edna Zamzow of Lincoln, province director. Also attending will be Miss Helen Woodruff of Des Moines, Iowa, national treasurer of Delta Zeta sorority.

A series of round-table discussions, a talk by Miss Woodruff, and a dinner and dance with Denver university fraternity members as guests will be featured on Saturday's program, and the conference will be concluded on Sunday with a morning brunch to be served to the delegates at an inn high in the Rocky Mountains.

Included among Lincoln alumnae attending will be Mrs. Glenn E. Callen, Mrs. Lloyd Chapman, Miss Shirley Hess, Mrs. Charles H. Hines and Miss Amy Barbar. Representing Beta Tau chapter at Lincoln will be the following delegates: Miss Dorothy Blough, president, of Lincoln; Mary Louise Alfs, Shickley; Jane Alkire, Lexington; Martha Jean Clifton, Gering; Delores Frantz and Elizabeth Frantz of Goehner; Patricia Johann, Seward; Joanne Johns, Gering; Deloris Meier, Lincoln; Jeannine Oliver, North Platte; Joyce Raric, Bellwood; Donnabell Royce, Lincoln; Kathleen Roberts, also of Lincoln; Marlea Sims, Friend; Jeannie Stark, Lexington; Dolores Sugden, Burr; and Louise Thurman of Louisville.

MRS. EVANS Z. HORNBERGER

Coming from Omaha to attend the district convention of Phi Mu sorority this week-end is Mrs. Evans Z. Hornberger, national counselor of the sorority, and a past national president of Phi Mu.

Mrs. Hornberger, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, class of 1913, and a Phi Beta Kappa, will be the speaker at the sorority's banquet on Saturday evening at the Cornhusker hotel.

Banquet Of Delian-Union

The annual spring banquet of the Delian-Union Literary Society of the University of Nebraska, held Friday evening at the Student Union, was attended by fifty active and alumni members. Spring flowers in shades of purple and gold, the Society's colors, formed the centerpieces for the banquet tables.

Presenting brief talks were Lourene Keugler, Marie Teleen and Jo Ann Cosgraves, and the president, Royal Sieffert, presented awards for the Society's annual short story contest. Winning first place was Jack MacDonald, with Gloria Gengenbach taking second, and Wendell Smith, third.

The winning story, "Honorable Ancestor," was read by Marvin Malone. Also a feature of the program was a ventriloquist skit given by David Koch and "Homer."

We Hear That—

Returning home Saturday will be William Joseph Barnds, son of the Rev. and Mrs. William Paul Barnds, who has been attending a conference of the Youth Commission of the province of the northwest of the Episcopal church at Frontenac, Minn. Mr. Barnds was one of three delegates representing Nebraska at the week-long conference.

Arriving Monday from Kansas City, Mo., to reside in Lincoln were Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Dunning who will make their home at 4415 Witherbee.

ROBERTA JEAN TIERNEY

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Thompson of St. Edwards are today announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their granddaughter, Roberta Jean Tierney, to George Herbert Klingerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klingerman of Lincoln.

The wedding will be an event of Sunday, May 22, and the ceremony will take place at the Methodist church in Albion.

Mr. Klingerman is a former student at the University of Nebraska.

Unicameral Ladies Club

Mrs. Arthur Carmody and Mrs. Willard Wilson were hostesses Monday afternoon at luncheon held at the Hotel Cornhusker for the members of the Unicameral Ladies' club. The after luncheon hours were spent on a tour of the state hospital.

Included among the guests were Mrs. Lowell S. Devoe of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Harry D. Strunk, McCook, Mrs. Albert Johnson, Oakland, Mrs. J. E. Conklin, Hubbell, and Mrs. C. A. Sweet, jr., of Palmyra. Guests attending from Lincoln were Mrs. Edward Gillette, Miss Orva DeWald, Mrs. H. G. Greenamyre, Mrs. K. C. Fouts, Mrs. Hugo Srb, Mrs. F. D. Keim, Mrs. R. H. Mohrman, Mrs. Ralph W. Jones, Mrs. Kenneth R. McCaw, Mrs. James L. Brown and Mrs. E. R. Ryerson.

We Hear That—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sharrick will leave next week by plane for Texas where Mr. Sharrick will represent Optimists International at a district convention of the organization to be held at Harlinger, Tex., in the Rio Grande valley. During the convention, Mrs. Sharrick will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bernbaum, and Joan Lynn, at Houston, Tex.

Everett, Bethany PTA Groups

At the April meeting of Everett P. T. A., held Tuesday at the junior high school building, Dr. Galen Saylor of the University of Nebraska department of education addressed the members on the topic, "Problems of the Junior High School."

A feature of the musical program which followed was the trumpet solo by Allen Gilbert Griess, and a duet was sung by Mrs. Fred Hill and Mrs. H. R. Brakhage.

Presiding at the business meeting was Mrs. Fred Rickert, and the following new officers were elected: president, Mrs. R. M. Kauffman; vice president, Mrs. M. B. Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Ray Randolph; and treasurer, Mrs. Homer Damke.

Refreshments were served by mothers of the eighth grade students with Mrs. George Kaufman as chairman.

OFFICERS NAMED

Mrs. Elmer Yates presided at the meeting of Bethany P. T. A. held Wednesday at the school at which time the members elected new officers. President for the coming year will be Mrs. Yates; first vice president, Mrs. Garland Shields; second vice president, Mrs. Marie Griffith; third vice president, Mrs. Carlyle Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Arling Delhay; treasurer, Mrs. David Wing; historian, Mrs. G. C. Burnham; and parliamentarian, Mrs. Ralph Corliss.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was W. A. Rosene who gave a talk on "Moral and Spiritual Education." A program of music was presented by the school orchestra and solos were played by Larry Dunbar, violinist, and Louis Hinkley, trumpeter. Members of the Di Wa Go Camp Fire Girls group sang several songs, and also were hostesses at the social hour supervised by Mrs. Vivian Quinn and Margaret Wilson. Sponsors for the group are Mrs. Vivian Quinn and Mrs. Joan Elliot.

P. T. A. Convention Speakers

Mrs. Gertrude E. Flyte of Mitchell, S. D., secretary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, discussed the P.T.A. national four-point program at the twenty-seventh annual convention of the state organization at Grand Island.

Mrs. Flyte urged the members to study and discuss in open forums the problems of each community, and to promote legislative measures that will make possible the achievement of the four-point program of health, education, family living and world citizenship.

Teamwork between parents and teachers was urged by Mrs. R. N. Gould of Omaha, president of the Nebraska Congress, at the opening session of the convention on Thursday. A report by Mrs. Ralph Beechner of Lincoln, revealed a state membership of 44,022 members representing 277 local units. During the past year, twenty-four new P.T.A. units have been formed in the state.

At a meeting of the state board, the resignation of Mrs. Clarence Minnick of Cambridge, second vice president, was accepted.

BELGIANS WARNED OF COUNTERFEITS

BRUSSELS —(AP)— Banks, cafes and shops in Belgium are displaying large posters showing photographs and descriptions of counterfeit 1,000 francs notes now circulating in the country. The posters, issued by the National Bank, show up the faults in the engraving. The public is being asked to learn the faults and report any counterfeits to the authorities. Belgian bank notes of 1000 francs have a printed warning to the effect that "Counterfeiters will be sentenced to hard labor." This warning has been faithfully reproduced by the forger.

—Farm Program—

Aiken Law Junking Is Proposed

Amendment Permitting "Production Payments" On Hogs Only Pondered

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The present farm program may run on for another year, with an amendment permitting "production payments" for hog farmers.

This emerged today as a possible compromise of bitterly clashing proposals for long range protection of agricultural income.

Such a compromise, if enacted, would:

1. Retain rigid 90 per cent of parity price supports for major farm crops, suspending the "Aiken law" that is set to become effective in 1950 with flexible 60 to 90 per cent of parity support.

(Parity is a legal standard intended to guarantee that farmers get a fair price for what they sell in comparison with the prices of what they buy.)

2. Use the hog market for a "trial run" of the Truman administration's new farm program "production payment" proposal. This might mean (a) cheaper pork chops, hams and bacon for the consumer, and (b) a guaranteed hig price for farmers, probably at about $16.50 a hundredweight.

3. Use in 1950 of the present government loan and purchase mechanisms for holding up prices by keeping surpluses off the markets. This would set aside the administration's proposals for broad use of production payments instead of loans and purchases.

Supply and Demand.

The administration wants to let prices on many foods, such as pork, sell freely at what the market will pay and then make production payments to farmers amounting to the difference between the market price and what the government sets as a fair price.

4. Power for production controls and marketing quotas to forestall accumulation of large surpluses in some crops.

Chairman (Cooley (D-NC) of the house agriculture committee—without advocating any specific plan at this time—told a reporter that such a compromise might come out of the present controvesy over farm legislation.

The government now has authority to buy pork and hold it off the market to keep prices from falling unreasonably, but Secretary of Agriculture Brannan has voiced alarm at the prospect that by this price-supporting method the government some months might find itself with large stores of spoiling meat.

Frank Fay Scores Big Hit In "Harvey" Before 3,500

. . . Six Curtain Calls For Veteran Actor

By PAUL SCOTT.

"What did you have in mind for me!"

That was one of the hit comedy lines from the stage play "Harvey" but as a question it gave Lincoln theater goes a chance to express themselves on what they would like to see in the future on the local stage.

That is, more acting like Frank Fay who walked right into the heart of everyone, both professional and novice theatre followers, with his leading performance as the bachelor who had let "drink" and not the troubles of the world lead his life into a world of semi make-belief.

Fay was "Mr. It" all the way. The cast knew it, he knew it, and the capacity crowd of 3,500 echoed it during the entire play with their laughter and tremendous applause at the Thursday night performance at the Stuart.

Many Miss Opening.

Although dozens missed the opening curtain because of the early curtain time (8 p. m.) and the downtown parking problems, the crowd showed their warm appreciation of a difficult comedy type play by following Fay and his imaginary six foot rabbit rather than attempting to pick up the light plot.

Fay, who is starring in the leading role for the fifth straight year, was so convincing about his friendship with a "big rabbit" that he had many of the audience looking for one when the stage lights were dimmed for one scene.

As Elwood P. Dowde, Faye used his dry and "I'll finish it in a moment" wit and sweeping motions to make the play a successful comedy despite the fact that it dealt with that troublesome theme of a man and his personal inflictions.

Dry Wit.

Plot of the play centered around the desires of a sister, Mrs. Simmons (played by Dora Clements) to have her brother, Dowd, committed as a mental patient because of his excessive drinking and the reflection of his reputation on the life of her daughter, Myrtle Mae Simmons, played by Jean Stapleton. She also desired Dowd's home where she and the daughter lived.

Complications developed at "Chumley's Rest Home," when Mrs. Simmons was committed instead of her brother. It was in this scene that the supporting cast led by Fred Irving Lewis who played the roll of Dr. William H. Chumley showed their best acting.

Others in the cast included Credda Zajac as Miss Johnson; Kate Tomlinson as Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet; Mabel McCallum, as Nurse Ruth Kelly; Bradord Hatton as Duane Wilson; Thomas Hume, as Dr. Lyman Sanderson; Genevieve Frizzell as Betty Chumley; Sydney Grant as Judge Omaha Gafney; and Burke McHugh as E. J. Lofgren.

The after-the-show curtain call performance by Fay were nearly as good as his performance in the show. He seemed to have a good time in answering six calls from the audience, hundreds of whom had witnessed only one or two stage plays.

Chest Agencies Re-evaluation Study Begins

Survey Social And Health Needs Of City

A re-evaluation of the Community Chest agencies got under way Friday noon at a meeting at the Y.W.C.A. Albert A. Held will serve as chairman, according to an announcement of Harry D. Peck, president of the Lincoln Community Chest. Mr. Held will be assisted by a committee of twelve citizens, four each representing the Chest, the Council of Social Agencies, and the advance gifts division of the compaign.

The members who will serve in surveying and re-evaluating the agencies are:

COMMUNITY CHEST—M. G. Volz, Clyde W. James, Mrs. C. M. Duff, Elsworth F. DuTeau.

COUNCIL OF SOCIAL AGENSIES—Gus Prestegaard, Rev. C. Vin White, Robert T. Malone, John C. Settelmayer.

ADVANCE GIFTS DIVISION — John Agee, W. W. Putney, Walker Battey, Howard Freeman.

The study is a joint one sponsored by the Chest and Council of Social Agencies and the advance gifts division of the annual campaign. According to a joint statement issued by Harry D. Peck and Mrs. O. L. Webb, presidents respectively of the Chest and Council, the purpose of the survey is for:

1. Securing greater knowledge of the agencies' services.

2. A more adequate and more efficient total program of service through the consideration of community problems, analysis of community needs, and evaluation of services in relation to needs, and through a collection of facts and appraisal.

3. Establishing more efficient and economical administration, as well as better coordination, in order to reduce costs of social services, to assure the public of good business-like administration.

General Objective.

The statement added that the general objective of the survey is to make sure that the chairtable dollar raised in Lincoln through the Community Chest does the greatest good for the greatest number in the most economical, effective way, and avoids duplications of agencies, their services, and programs.

The survey and re-evaluation will embrace general studies of the social and health needs of the city, and resources available in the city to meet them. Detailed studies will be made of the administration and service programs of the individual private agencies as the necessity therefore is indicated in the course of the study. Studies as to other campaigns for funds of agencies un-coordinated in their social programs and fund raising campaigns, will be made, inasmuch as they effect fund raising for well recognized and established local agensies. Also, studies will be made as to the growth of services and costs of private agencies during the past ten years (1939-1948), in relation to the growth in the population, increased cost of city, county and state governments, the city economic ability, and the governmental index of the cost of living.

"This survey and re-evaluation is not being made because of the thought of any great over-expansion or expensive and inefficient services," stated Mr. Peck and Mrs. Webb, "but to become assured that the agencies are functioning economically-co-operatively, and with efficiency in light of the funds appropriated and contributed by the public. Likewise, if the report shows more funds are needed for particular services, we hope it will bring the matter out."

According to Chairman Held, concentrated efforts will be made from now on to complete the report by July 1, before the annual budgeting of the chest agencies for 1950 takes place.

Proposed Auditorium Arena Will Seat 5,694

Fixed Seating Of Stadium Is 3,044

Backers Say "Yes" To Man-On-Street's "Is It Big Enough"

(On next Tuesday, May 3, the voters of Lincoln will pass on a proposal to raise $1,500,000 by a bond issue to be used with $950,000 already approved to build a city auditorium.

In order to give the voters a clearer picture of the issue and the facts that surround it, The Lincoln Star tonight presents the last of a series of three articles on the Auditorium Proposal.)

BY DALE HOAGLAN

Lincoln will cross its T-shaped city auditorium with an arena building.

The 259 by 139 foot building will have a total seating capacity of 5,694 persons, 3,044 in permanent stadium seats around the east side and the north and south ends, and 2,650 on the flat floor arena.

The total seating capacity would depend on the amount of floor space being used. It would range downward from the approximate 5,700 for conventions through fights and basketball, to the approximate 3,000 seats for an ice show or hockey game.

Capacity Said Adequate.

In spite of the city's approximate 20 per cent growth in population since the building was planned and increased interest in hockey and basketball, members of the Auditorium Advisory committee who could be reached said the auditorium as now designed would fill the need.

"Any building is a compromise," Charles Elce, committee member said. "It will fill the need." John Selleck, committee member, termed the plans "still adequate to the need in proportion to what the city can and ought to pay for an auditorium."

AUDITORIUM ARENA—The building shown here is the architects sketch of the sports arena portion of the proposed city auditorium. The arena would have seating for 3,044 in permanent stadium seats along the east wall and the north and south ends. Temporary floor seating could accommodate 2,650 for a total 5,694 persons. The arena floor could be flooded for ice skating and hockey games.

T. B. Strain, committee chairman, said the committee spent three years studying Lincoln's auditorium needs and buildings in other cities over the country. "The plans when drawn in 1941 and 1942 contemplated an increased population," Strain said. "It would be unwise for Lincoln to build a 3,000 or 4,000 seat theatre which would be filled only once or twice a year and stand empty the rest of the year. I don't believe another auditorium commission could work another three years and produce plans for a building more suited to Lincoln's needs."

But dozens of the city's "average citizens" interviewed still asked the questions: "Is the auditorium big enough? Will it hold the crowds that will flock there to see sports and civic events? Won't the city outgrow the auditorium if it already hasn't? Wouldn't a 12,500 seat arena be better?

The auditorium would have cost $900,000 when designed in 1941-1942. Architects who designed the building say it will cost in the neighborhood of $2,500,000 to construct today. Thus the need for $1,500,000 in addition to the $950,000 already held for the building.

The main feature of the sports arena wing of the auditorium is its 85 by 185 foot flat-floor arena with a little over nine miles of embedded refrigeration piping for creating an ice-skating rink.

The machinery for producing refrigeration for cooling the brine which is circulated through the floor for freezing the water sprayed on the floor has a capacity of 106 tons per 24 hours. Under normal conditions the refrigeration equipment would not operate over 16 hours per day. It will require 37½ tons of ice to cover the floor to a one-inch thickness.

The ice floor will be maintained in thickness from three-quarters to one and a half inches. After each skating session it would be resurfaced by planing and spraying on a light coat of water. It would take not over an hour to provide a new surface.

Six Hours To Remove.

The ice may be removed from the floor in about three to six hours by warming the cold brine refrigerant to break the bond between the floor and sheet of ice. The ice would then be broken up and shoved down into a snow pit at one end of the floor.

This system provides for having ice one day, a bare floor the next day and then back to ice the next. The floor is one solid sheet of concrete designed to withstand its frequent temperature changes and to support a load such as circuses, rodeos or heavily loaded trucks. The ground under the arena floor is not excavated.

Immediately inside the entrance lobby on Sixteenth street is a concourse and concession space which extends the complete length of the building and across both ends of the building beneath the stadium seating. The concourse varies in width from 12 to 28 feet and has storage rooms for movable seats and will be equipped to handle food catering service for large banquets in the arena.

The basement area devoted to exhibit space extends across the entire east side and north and south ends of the building. This exhibit area in the basement is serviced by an elevator and driveway ramp allowing trucks and cars to come into the basement.

A storage room for the arena's moveable equipment such as a sectional wood basketball floor boxing ring, folding chairs, temporary bleachers and so forth, along with machine, transformer and switch rooms complete the basement portion of the arena building.

One man's Opinion

Herbert Hoover says our economy can't stand much more and he ought to know . . . he was around the last time we prospered ourselves into poverty.

Not that the democrats are not grateful to Hoover . . . They won an all-expense trip to Washington with a 20-year-stopover on his program.

KIERNAN

But their budget of 45 billion dollars plus new tax proposals is beginning to look like "Winner Take All" sponsored by us.

Half of the new budget is for supporting the world, but it is our happy privilege to get up all of it.

That means each of us is working for two and reports from Europe indicate that the other guy doesn't even like us.

Harry may know what he's doing but I hear that if anyone crept up behind him and said "Hey, buddy . . . wanna buy an apple?" he'd faint.

Teachers Will Get Pay Boost

Lincoln teachers will receive a wage increase of $400 to $500 within the next three years as the result of the added two-mill levy provided for in recent legislation passed, Dr. Gilbert S. Willey, superintendent of Lincoln public schools, said Thursday.

Addressing a meeting of the Optimist club, Dr. Willey said some of the money also will be used to improve the schools' physical plant.

He explained that the one of the additional mills will be levied in 1950 and the other in 1951.

The increase, Dr. Willey said, would bring teachers' salaries up to the average for cities of comparable size in this region.

Total enrollment in the Lincoln schools is 12,500, he said. The number of certified personnel employed is 500 and there are 175 employed in clerical and custodial forces.

There are 23 elementary school units, four senior high school units and six junior high school units.

C. L. Clark also addressed the group on behalf of the new auditorium and bond isue.

Marilyn Snook, 216 North Tenth street, entertained with several songs.

Date Set For Walkout Of Engineers

Western Lines Face A Possible Strike May 11

CHICAGO —(AP)— Astrike on May 11 by some 25,000 railroad engineers against 15 western carriers appeared possible today.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers paved the way for the walk-out yesterday by rejecting a presidential fact finding board's recommendation. The board on April 11 denied the union's demand for a second engineer on multiple unit diesel locomotives.

Under terms of the national railway labor act the engineers can strike on May 11, although a union official said "a strike is not the only alternative." He indicated the union might be agreeable to further negotiations with the railroads.

Report Sent to Truman.

James P. Shields, assistant grand engineer of the BLE, said a report on the rejection of the board's recommendations by the union's general chairmen was sent to President Truman. He added that if Mr. Truman recommended further negotiations it would not be mandatory, "but such a recommendation would have some influence."

"It would harly be proper to state what we plan to do until after the expiration of the 30-day limit (May 11)," Shields said.

Shields said about 116 railroads are affected by the decision of the general chairman but only the 15 destern carriers have taken a strike vote.

Railroads which are threatened by the strike are the Illinois Central; Santa Fe; Chicago, Milwaukee St. Paul & Pacific; Chicago& Northwestern; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific; Great Northern; Southern Pacific; Western Pacific; St. Louis & San Francisco, and the Chicago Great Western.

Marshall Hurls: Criticism At Solons School, Road Actions

Farm Bureau Chief Hits "Budget Cuts" Highway Legislation

State Farm Bureau Federation President Charles Marshall Friday lumped schools and roads in a criticism of the state government and legislature.

"Perhaps," he said, it makes sense to curtail the educational facilities available to the leaders of Nebraska, and at the same time launch the state upon a super-highway program.

"But I for one cannot see that it does."

Gov. Val Peterson and the legislature budget committee have cut both the budget of the University of Nebraska and the four state normal schools.

Meanwhile, the legislature had indicated it is going to pass bills favored by Gov. Peterson to increase gasoline taxes and automobile license fees.

The university had asked for approximately $10,000,000 for the next biennium. Gov. Peterson cut that to $7,800,000, and the budget committee is said to have sliced it to $7,400,000.

Marshall said the proposed gas tax increase, increased license fees and a proposed auto use stamp would bring in an estimated $7,425,000 annually to the highway department.

"Academic Standards Will Suffer."

"The state can provide for super-highways to make it possible for transient visitors to speed their way from coast to coast, but it cannot give the boys and girls who seek a university education the kind of facilities they are entitled to expect," commented Marshall.

He expressed the thought that "an action of the present legislature will mean that University of Nebraska academic standards will suffer."

As a result, he declared, the institution "could rapidly slip to a second rate institution, for the want of funds to meet the competition of other universities which can afford to pay instructive personnell more."

Marshall said he did not question the sincerity of the budget committee in setting up the university and normal school budgets. But, he declared, he was fearful of loss of personnel and of curtailment of agricultural research work through a lack of funds.

for Mayor

Knows what is required to operate an economical and efficient city government on a reasonable tax program.

MR. WALKER PLEDGES:

1. A fair deal for the small, overburdened taxpayers.
2. That the Bus Company should be required to give better service.
3. That City ordinances and regulations will be fairly enforced (Directors should put in full time or be removed).
4. That utilities should be required to pay fair occupation tax.
5. That immediate repairs will be made on the streets throughout the city.

Mr. Walker believes that a reduction can be made in electricity and gas. (Fremont has lower electric rates than Lincoln).

Teachers, CV Face Stout Foes

. . . In District Races

Coach Emory Priefert is dubious as he considers the chances of his College View track team retaining Saturday the team title it won last year in the Class C district meet at Doane college in Crete.

The Viewmen will try to retain the crown Saturday against a field of 19 rivals. Humboldt and Table Rock rank as serious threats.

Weight man Earl Elliot, defending shot champ and second in the discus last year, is the top CV hope.

Dale Dugger, returning mile winner, is not the favorite this year. Bob Slaughter of Table Rock and Wayne Judds of Ashland are the top milers.

Hurdler Bill Maly and Quartermiler Verlan Rumbaugh are other CV threats. The Southsiders' relay team faces a stern bid from Bellevue in its attempt to qualify for the state meet.

Teachers hopes in Class B at Doane, rest with Dick Dittenber, sprinter and Bob Heffelbinger, all-round handyman. Coach Dale Snook is not sure that Dittenber will be in top form, but gives his speed boy a good chance to win.

A pulled back muscle has slowed the Tutor runner. Dittenber has been clocked in :10.7 for 100 yards.

Heffelfinger, who scored 20¾ points in a quadrangular meet last week, does best in the broad jump and pole vault. He vaulted 11 feet 4 inches during an indoor workout under the east stadium. He has sailed 19 feet 6 inches in the broad jump.

Chandler Suspends Durocher "Indefinitely"

LEO CHARGED WITH STRIKING FAN THURSDAY AFTER BROOKLYN GAME

CINCINNATI—(AP)—Leo Durocher, manager of the New York Giants, was suspended indefinitely today by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

The suspension was the result of a disturbance following the game Thursday between Brooklyn and New York, when Durocher allegedly struck a fan.

Durocher was ordered to appear before the commissioner in Cincinnati, May 3.

"The commissioner is making a complete investigation of the case," Walter Mulbry, baseball secretary, said in announcing the suspension.

Durocher is accused by a Brooklyn fan of punching and kicking him Thursday at the Polo grounds.

It was the second time the fiery manager has been suspended by Chandler. He was set down for the entire 1947 season for conduct detrimental to baseball. At the time he was manager of the Brooklyn club.

Commissioner Chandler is in Washington and the announcement came after he had talked with Mulbry by telephone.

From a hospital cot, the fan—22-year-old Fred Boysen—said he would bring charges of assault against Durocher.

Boysen, a vociferous Brooklyn rooter, said he was attacked on the playing field after Durocher's Giants had been whipped, 15-2, by the Dodgers.

Durocher gave this version of the incident:

"As I was crossing the field to the dressing room I recall somebody snatching at my cap. I grabbed it back and kept walking. This sort of thing happens every day. I was surrounded by members of the Giants team and there were hundreds of spectators on the field. Do you think I could knock somebody down in front of them?"

Leo Durocher

Durocher said he planned to fly to Boston today. The Giants open a series against the Braves there tonight.

Boysen—a war veteran—said he had been razzing the Giants' manager from a box behind the New York dugout. He gave this version:

"After the game my cousin and I went on the field. We were passing first base on our way over to talk to Jackie Robinson. Durocher came up behind me. He grabbed me and punched me. As I tried to get up—I was dizzy—he kicked me in the stomach."

In July, 1945 he was charged with felonious assault upon a spectator at a Brooklyn game. The fan claimed Durocher beat him black and blue while a special Ebbets field guard held him. Durocher was acquitted.

During the past winter, Durocher was called on Commissioner Chandler's carpet again in connection with the hiring of Fred Fitzsimmons as a Giant coach while still under contract to the Boston Braves. Fitzsimmons drew a month's suspension, but Leo got off with a reprimand.

Last night Commissioner Chandler said he had received no official report of the most recent fracas and that he had no comment.

The commissioner has the power to call a hearing on the matter if he feels that it reflects upon baseball. His power to punish is virtually unlimited, up to and including permanent expulsion from the sport.

Rocket Chance Slight

District Track Kings Must Surprise To Hold Class A Championship

By GEORGE MILLER
(Star Sports Staff Member)

CHANCES of the Class A district track meet at Wesleyan Saturday being a repeat of the Lincoln-Northeast monopoly of last year are remote.

At least two of the other three squads entered have enough talent to slice sharply into the Links and Rocket point potential.

Beatrice, new Mid-East champion, and Fairbury, Mid-East runnerup, are ready to claim their share of qualifying places handed out in the five-team meet.

Only Falls City seems to fall shy of the balance needed for a team championship.

Last spring Northeast won with 88 points. Lincoln had 77½ and the rest of the field trailed far behind.

SURPRISE ENTRIES.

The surprising performances of Beatrice and Fairbury athletes in the Mid-East carnival a week ago preclude any such Capital City sweep this year.

Prelims in dashes and hurdles are scheduled during the morning along with some field event finals.

Sprinters in contention will be Lincoln's upstart sophomore, Brian Hendrickson, who has turned in a :10.3 century, Fairbury's Phil Heidelk, who has a :22.9 furlong time and Northeast's Leroy Peery.

But the Rocket flash will have to do a sudden about-face if he is to salvage any first place glory from the above-mentioned rivals. Peery trailed Heidelk in both sprints in the Mid-East carnival.

Charley Hunley of Falls City and Jack Thomas of Northeast are expected to battle for the 440-yard dash victory. A pulled tendon slowed Hunley's pace two weeks ago. He is now returning to top form.

Lincoln's Hobe Jones has the field to himself in the 880. Jones has run the distance only once in competition this spring, winning a dual meet race in 2:01.3. That time is far ahead of the next best, a 2:09.7 by Burl Kreps of Northeast.

MILE FAVORITE.

Bob Holt of Beatrice, who ran behind Marv Zimmerman of Nebraska City last year, is rated as the man to beat in the mile.

In the hurdle races another Orangeman, Jerry Grancer, rates top billing. Grancer won both the high and low hurdle races in the Mid-East meet.

He will have to beat off the challenge of Northeast's Jack Thomas who fell during the Mid-East high stick race.

Relay honors seem to lie between Lincoln and Fairbury with Northeast a threat if Rocket runners are not tired from other races during the meet.

Hoyt Hultberg of Northeast is high jump choice followed by Heidelk of Fairbury and Bob Huttenmeir of Beatrice.

The broad jump is wide open. Doug Thomas of Fairbury deserves consideration following his Mid-East win at 20 feet 4 inches. Loule Roper of Lincoln and Al Gay of Beatrice could outdo the Jeff.

Thomas also won the Mid-East discus toss. A trio of Lincoln entries, however, are expected to dominate this event. Jack Greer and Merle Backlund have been pressing 140 feet all season. Eldon Parks has also bettered 130 feet.

Freshman Bill Hawkins of Beatrice, Keith Smith of Northeast and Bob Howey of Lincoln are best bets in the shot. Hawkins won the Mid-East with a 46 foot 2½ inch shove.

Pole vault laurels appear to rest between Mel Cox of Beatrice and Jim Sommers of Lincoln. The pair tied for fourth in the state meet last year at 11 feet 5 inches.

TOP story that came out of this week's college publicity convention was an off-the-record account of a pre-season scrimmage between two rival institutions... The day after they met, a freshman tackle who had looked good for the "home" school was unaccountably missing...Overcome with suspicion, the coach telephoned his rival, who admitted the kid was on his campus but disclaimed any knowledge of how he got there...A few minutes later the phone rang at the "home" school and the kid spoke: "Coach, I don't like it here; I'd like to come back."..."Okay, catch a bus and come on," the coach replied...The kid protested: "I haven't any money. Coach Soandso just gave me enough to get here."...The home coach lost patience. "You go tell Coach Soandso to give you enough to get back," he ordered.....And that's just what happened.

A's Hit Western Cellar

Three Aliperto Miffs Hex Fauth's 4-Hitter: Pueblo Tips A's, 7-6

(Special to The Star)

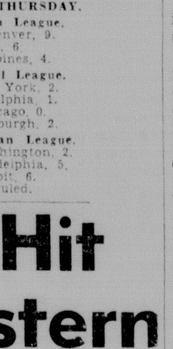
PUEBLO, Colo.—Four-hit pitching by Lincoln's Lew Fauth went for naught Thursday night as miserable support robbed the Athletic hurler of a Western league triumph.

The Pueblo Dodgers cashed in on four Lincoln errors, three by Third-baseman Joe Aliperto, to knock over the Nebraskans 7 to 6.

Lincoln hitters clouted John Stilwell for 10 hits, including a 360-foot home run by Rocco Ippolito, but were stymied by flashy Pueblo fielding.

Pueblo's winning run came in the eighth inning without a hit. Jim Williams walked, stole second and was safe at third when Aliperto messed up Dan Holden's easy roller.

Williams and Holden then worked their second double steal of the game, Williams bringing home the decisive run.



Lew Fauth

The A's fought back with two runs in the first of the ninth, but were shy of catching the league-leading Dodgers.

An earlier double steal by Williams and Holden helped Pueblo fatten two hits in the third inning into four runs.

Ippolito, Lou Limmer and Tom Kirk led the Lincoln batters with two hits apiece.

Lincoln and Pueblo wind up their first series tonight in the Colorado town. They reopen hostilities in Lincoln with a Sunday afternoon game, the first of a three-game series.

NEXT CHOICE.

Manager Jimmy DeShong of the A's is expected to use Lynn Lovenguth and Fred Wells against Pueblo in tonight's doubleheader. Lincoln slipped into the Western league cellar as a result of last night's defeat.

Kaycee Wins Crowd Honor

(By the Associated Press)

The American association attendance trophy belonged to Kansas City today, although Indianapolis dimmed the luster of the Blues' home opener before 14,620 fans by snaring a 13 to 6 baseball decision.

Kansas City had a bulge of 554 over Columbus' figure in its home opener Thursday. When the western A.A. teams opened in the east recently Columbus attracted 14,066 fans to Red Bird stadium in a bid to retain the attendance trophy it won last year.

In other games Thursday, league-leading St. Paul won its sixth straight game without defeat in downing Columbus 2 to 1. Milwaukee trounced Toledo 9 to 1, and Minneapolis nipped Louisville 4 to 3.

Gehrmann Eyes Busy Relay Day

. . . HUSKER HOPES LOW

DES MOINES—(AP)—Don Gehrmann set out on the heroic task of anchoring four Wisconsin teams as the 40th annual Drake relays opened today with perfect weather for record breaking indicated.

The two day track meet drew 1,876 athletes from 179 schools, 71 in the university and college divisions and the rest high schools.

The big team favorites are Wisconsin, Oklahoma A. and M., California, Michigan State, Missouri, and Texas A. and M.

Nine relay records are threatened. Gehrmann may figure in two of these, the university mile and two mile relays.

One star was struck from the entry list. Michigan State withdrew its ace, Fred Johnson, because of a sore leg. Johnson, the National A.A.U. broad jump champion who twice has hit 25 feet this spring, was a favorite in this event and in the low hurdles.

FINALS TODAY

Today's program brought finals in the sprint medley, distance medley, two mile run, discus, and broad jump of the university class, and the college half mile relay.

Nebraska chances for first place honors tumbled after Sprinter Dick Hutton was forced to remain at home because of a stomach disorder.

Al Thompson

He will be replaced by Bill Hein, Alliance, in the 440-yard relay, and by Don Vollertsen, Talmage, in the 880-yard relay.

Al Thompson, Fritz Ware and Harry Meginnis will round out both teams.

Both relay teams will have to qualify in today's prelims to be around for the finals Saturday.

A third Nebraska relay team to run today will be the sprint medley combination.

Al Thompson and Harry Meginnis will run the 220-yard distances, Loyal Hurlbert will handle the 440 and Harold Kopf the closing 880.

Esref Aydin bids in the two-mile today. Jim McConnell and Wayne Sees face final competition in the discus.

Preliminaries in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 100-yard dash will bring forth more Nebraska entries. Bob Berkshire, Ray Magsamen and Willis Jones are listed in the hurdles with Thompson and Meginnis in the dash.

No athlete has ever anchored four relay teams to victory at Drake. In addition to running in the mile and two mile relays tomorrow, Gehrmann is in both medleys today. The presence of Gehrman, who last week did a sparkling 4:10.1 in the Kansas relays mile, makes his team the favorite, pressed by Michigan State with its two distance aces, Jack Dianetti and Bill Mack.

One Drake relay record is sure to fall—the 220 yard low hurdle mark set by G. P. Guthrie, Ohio State, in 1926, at :24.5. The event has not been run here since then. A half dozen men are entered who can do :23.0.

Other threatened records, with the possible breakers and their best performance in parenthesis are:

Pole vault—14 feet 1-16 inch, Beefus Bryan, Texas, 1940. (Harry Cooper, Minnesota, 14 feet 8 inches).

Discus—165 feet 5 inches, Fortune Gordien, Minnesota, 1948. (Byrl Thompson, Minnesota, 169 feet 2⅜ inches and George Kadera, Texas A. & M., 169 feet 2 inches).

University four miles relay—17:29.6, Oklahoma A. & M., 1939. (Michigan State, which might even break the American record of 17:16.1).

University two mile relay—7:41.9, Drake 1941. (Oklahoma A. & M., 7:41, and Wisconsin.)

College mile relay—Southwest Texas Teachers, 1939. (Loyola of Chicago.)

High jump—6 feet 8 inches, Pete Watkins, Texas A. and M., 1942. (Bob Walters, Texas, and Vern McGrew, Rice, both over 6-8).

University mile relay—3:14.1, Ohio State, 1939. (Texas A. and M. and Wisconsin.)

University 480 yard shuttle hurdle—:59.4, Ohio State, 1937. (Michigan State).

Novak Paces NU Batsmen

Reason for the mediocre showing of the University of Nebraska baseball team is contained in batting averages of Husker regulars.

The Scarlet nine played this afternoon at Lawrence, Kas., against the KU Jayhawks and has another game with Kansas Saturday.

Tom Novak leads Nebraska hitters with a .323 average. Bob Cerv and Bill Denker both have driven in 11 runs. Cerv also leads in runs scored with 12 and in hits with 12. Averages:

	AB	R	H	RBI	Pct
Tom Novak	31	7	10	6	.323
Bob Cerv	40	12	12	11	.300
Del Blatchford	21	8	5	2	.238

Giant Prexy Defends Leo

NEW YORK—(AP)—Horace Stoneham, president of the New York Giants, today came staunchly to the defense of his manager, Leo Durocher, who was accused of having struck a fan after Thursday's game at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher was suspended indefinitely by Commissioner A. B. Chandler today.

"The New York club has the fullest confidence in Leo Durocher and will support him to the limit against these false accusations," Stoneham said upon being told of the suspension.

"We are positive he did not hit this man."

Samuel Reinish, attorney for Fred Boysen, the 22-year-old fan who said Durocher hit him, announced he would apply on Monday for a summons charging the manager with simple assault.

Durocher left for Boston today with his club. He declined to comment further on Boysen's charges.

Williams Finds Range: Groth Hits Fourth

By JACK HAND.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

AMERICAN League pitchers, beware! Ted Williams has found the home run range.

While rookies Johnny Groth and Jack Graham and teammate Vern Stephens battered the fences, Teddy had to be content with singles and doubles. Now he's back in the groove.

Williams had a big day yesterday with his first homer, a single and three walks for a perfect day against Philadelphia. He drove in five runs during the afternoon's festivities at friendly Fenway Park.

Led by Williams, the Sox thumped the A's, 12-5, for a clean sweep of the two-game set. Now they move on to New York for an important series with the Yankees. It was the fourth straight loss for the A's.

Manager Joe McCarthy found encouragement in the pitching of Mickey Harris, making his first start of the season. The 31-year-old lefthander allowed only three hits up to the seventh, although the A's final total was 11.

The Yanks warmed up for the Boston series by downing Washington, 6-2, behind Ed Lopat. The chunky lefthander, supposedly a slow starter in the spring and a great hot weather pitcher, now has won three straight.

Groth and Graham each hit their fourth home runs as the St. Louis Browns whipped Detroit, 9-6. Groth got his with the bases loaded, his second slam, to send the Tigers out front in the third inning. Although the 22-year-old Johnny drove in five runs and stretched his season-long consecutive game hitting streak to nine games, it wasn't enough.

FOUR DETROIT PITCHERS.

The Brownies pounded four Detroit pitchers, including loser Saul Rogovin, for 15 hits and a sweep of the two-game set. Graham smashed his homer with nobody on in the second.

Cleveland and Chicago were not scheduled, giving player-manager Lou Boudreau of the tribe another day to rest after being hit on the elbow by a pitched ball.

Both Stan Rojek of the Pittsburgh Pirates, hit on the head at St. Louis Wednesday night, and Bob Elliott of the Boston Braves, injured at Philadelphia Wednesday, were out of action yesterday.

Pete Castiglione filled in for Rojek, getting three hits as the Pirates lost to the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2. Alpha Brazle, ace of the Card staff at the moment, copped his second straight. The lefty set down the Pirates with eight hits.

The Pirates lost another infield regular when Danny Murtaugh twisted his ankle and had to be helped off the field in the sixth inning. He said later it was not serious.

Elliott's place was taken by Connie Ryan, who contributed two hits in Boston's 6-1 romp over the Phillies. Vern Bickford allowed only three hits, all singles, in outpitching Jocko Thompson.

Brooklyn bombed the New York Giants 15-2, moving into a first place tie with the Braves. While the Dodgers ripped the Giants pitchers to shreds, Ralph Branca doled out only four hits for his third straight win. Branca was in trouble in the early innings due to wildness, but escaped disaster.

An eight-run blast in the sixth inning, including a pair of homers by Mike McCormick and Roy Campanella, each with two on, did the trick.

It was after this humiliating defeat by the team he used to manage, that Manager Leo Durocher of the Giants got into an altercation with a Brooklyn fan.

Ken Raffensberger, Cincinnati's crafty southpaw veteran, shut out the Chicago Cubs, 2-0, with seven hits. Johnny Wyrostek, on a hitting spree scored both runs. Walt Dubiel was the Chicago loser.

EVEN though infield errors are costing the Lincoln A's a string of Western league victories, there are several bright points in the picture . . . One is the heavy hitting of rookie Rocco Ippolito, 20-year-old rightfielder from Bayonne, N. J., . . . The 208-pound speedster now has collected 15 hits in 32 times at bat for a .468 average . . . Eddie Boehm has 12 in 35 for a lusty .342.

LOOK for Kansas State to field the most improved football club in the Big Seven next fall . . . Coach Ralph Graham has all of his 1948 regulars back, plus a bumper frosh crop . . . In the recent Wildcat intra-squad game, 33 of the 56 men who participated were freshmen . . . K-State's No. 1 center is a Negro lad from Manhattan, 195-pound Harold Robinson . . . The No. 3 right halfback, Hoyt Givins, is also of the Negro race . . . Bud Hausken, Minnesota's first-call right halfback, has dropped out of school to enter the army air corps . . . Husker Jim McConnell, the 10-event decathlon winner at the Kansas relays, participated in seven of the events as a one-man track team at Central City high . . . Only events the quiet 195-pounder had never tried were the 100-yard dash, 400 meters and 1,500 meters . . . Meno Wilhelm, ex-NU gridder from Auburn, was co-chairman of the recent Engineers' Week at the university . . . Ralph (Home Run King) Kiner of the Pirates is launching his fourth year of major league competition . . . In his fourth season as an outfielder, Babe Ruth smacked 59 home runs . . . Kiner, now 26, hit 23 in his first year, compared to Ruth's 29 . . . He hit 51 in 1947 and 40 last year, tying with the Giants' Johnny Mize both years . . . Ruth was 32 and had 13 years of major league experience before he hit his record of 60 . . . Sid Bradley, for Bethany all-sports whiz, Tuesday became poppa of his second daughter, Kay True . . . Mrs. Bradley is the former Barbara True . . . Sid is now executive assistant of the Nebraska State Medical association . . . Connie Mack claims his present Philadelphia Athletic infield throws the ball better than that great combination of Berry, Collins and McInnis back in 1914 . . . St. Louis Cardinals' main weakness, we think, is the lack of a top-peg first-baseman . . . Yet Ray Sanders of the Braves and Dick Sisler of the Phils, considered two of the best first-sackers in the National league, are both Card castoffs.

Sid Bradley

FREDDY GOLAN, the 230-pound Husker tackle, played the part of Big Zombie in the recent Kosmet Klub play, "Let's Change the Subject" . . . He is described in the program as "probably the original missing link. Very apelike in appearance. He is large, hairy and has long, dangling arms" . . . Most dainty chorus girl in the production was Golan's 240-pound tackle mate, Charley Toogood, who played the part of a dancing nurse . . . Special stage reinforcements were applied when Golan and Toogood, all of 470 pounds of 'em, appeared at the same time.

Ransom Jackson, Des Moines' third-base smoothie of '48, is now Los Angeles' hot-corner guardian in the Pacific Coast league . . . He'll be in the parent Chicago Cubs' loins next season—or we'll munch yon derby . . . J. Parker wants to know how many times Jack Dempsey knocked Luis Firpo down back in 1923 . . . Firpo was floored nine times—seven in the first and twice in the second, as the bout was stopped in the second, Sept. 14, 1923.

Mighty silly these murmurings about the Western league using more of a rabbit ball than is used in the big leagues . . . All pro leagues, major and minor, use the identical horsehide. . . . It's a law, son . . . When he was pitching for the Yankees, the Lincoln A's manager, Jimmy DeShong, roomed with another old Western league hand, Tony Lazzeri . . . Lazzeri, who found himself dipping too heavily into bottled joy after he hit top fame, personally requested DeShong as a roomie . . . Jimmy, to this day, has never tasted beer or the stronger stuff . . . His only vice is about eight cigars daily.

New members of the Lincoln A's and incoming Cornhusker coaches, seeking apartments and houses, are stunned by the high cost of Lincoln real estate . . . One coach estimated the tariff here is 25 per cent higher than on the east coast.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Controls Of FHA Relaxed

10% Cash Requirement For Repairs On Homes Eliminated At Once

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The federal housing administration today eliminated the requirement that persons borrowing for home repair and modernization put up 10 per cent of the job costs in cash.

This easing of credit came on top of four similar moves by the federal reserve board in less than two months.

The latest of those four came only last night, making available next week an extra $1,200,000,000 for loans by the 7,000 banks of the federal reserve system.

"Shot In The Arm."

The rules changes indicated a swing in government policies to combat deflation instead of recently menacing inflation.

The 10 per cent "cash down payment" on modernization and repair loans obtained from private lenders under FHA guarantee had been in effect since April 20 last year.

FHA Commissioner Franklin D. Richards, said the elimination of the down payment requirement is effective immediately.

Financial experts said the relaxation on bank loans is enough to give the lagging economy a powerful "shot in the arm"—provided bankers and borrowers want to take risks.

Yes Vote On Auditorium Issue Urged

By John Curtiss; Candidates Speak To Kiwanis Club

Brief statements of their candidacy for mayor, city council and the school board were made by guests of the Lincoln Kiwanis club Friday noon at the chamber of commerce.

Before the introduction of the candidates, John Curtiss on behalf of the American Legion urged approval of the city auditorium and 99-year lease grant to the state fro national guard purposes on the May 3 ballot.

Meet City's Needs.

The auditorium as blueprinted by the committee appointed in 1941 will meet the needs of Lincoln, Curtiss said. If Lincoln is to be a progressive community the voters must approve the nine-tenths mill levy for 20 years to provide the necessary auditorium funds.

Although the citizen is becoming "tax-conscious," Curtiss said, the auditorium can be paid for in nickels and dimes. "The levy on a $10,000 house, appraised at 50 per cent of value would be only $4.50 a year to raise the needed $1,500,000.

Leasing of Lincoln municipal airport property to the state will bring an additional income to Lincoln through construction and payrolls above the present $35,000 a month payroll to guard personnel, Curtis said.

Mayor Clarence Miles, incumbent candidate, spoke briefly on the city's need for more funds, but said that if elected, he was "perfectly willing to struggle along without money and make what money that comes into the city go as far as possible."

The other candidate for mayor, William L. Walker, said there was a need for changes in the city hall. If elected he promised to get in and figure out some definite policies and stick to them.

Candidates for the school board who spoke were George H. Lemon, Jess L. Williams and Dr. Stanley Zemer. J. Lee Rankin was absent from the city.

City council candidates who spoke were John H. Comstock, Philip S. Harmdy, David B. Marti, Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme, Roy A. Sheaff and D. L. Tyrrell.

Confer On Cost Of Crushed Rock For N.E. Streets

Northeast high has not been abandoned to the mire.

A representative of Dr. Gilbert S. Willey, supperintendent of schools, was to confer with Deputy City Engineer Carl Fisher Friday on the cost and the apportionment of cost of surfacing streets around the school with crushed rock.

"I'm so happy to see the school Senator Taft (R-Ohio) spearhead for getting the school out of the mud," Councilwoman Fern Hubbard Orme commented Friday. Mrs. Orme and Fisher appeared before the school board recently and explained the city's inability to do the work itself. They suggested a plan of joint operation, but the board took no action at that time.

Fisher said Friday that the board seemed interested in putting concrete curbing and guttering around at least part of the school. He explained that since the land around the school is undeveloped there is a very definite limit on what it can bear in assessments for street improvements.

Playground Program

COLUBUS, Neb.—(AP)—A citywide playground program here this summer will be sponsored by the city council, the American Legion and the city school board. Edsel Wibbels, high school track coach will direct the program.

Wheat, Corn Finish Mixed

CHICAGO—(AP)—May wheat slipped a bit on the board of trade today, but did not repeat yesterday's tumble. It was down around a cent most of the session. New crop wheat deliveries held on to modest gains most of the day.

Oats, which had shown resistance during yesterday's break, were weak throughout the session today. Corn was mostly lower, particularly the May delivery. Soy beans and lard advanced, the latter being helped by reports the government had approved large pork sales to Great Britain.

A sustaining factor throughout the session was an overnight announcement of fairly large authorizations of funds to foreign countries for purchase of American wheat and flour.

Wheat closed 1½c lower to 1¼c higher. May $2.17¼@½, corn was 1½ lower to ⅛c higher, May $1.32¾@½, oats were ¼@⅞c lower May 65⅝@⅝, rye was ¾ to 1 cent lower. May $1.23⅞, soybeans were ¾@1¼c higher, May $2.24¼@½, and lard was 7 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $11.97
